(Too late for last week)

Nancy Criswell Allgayer Honored

Friday, April 18th at 7:30 p.m. the ladies of the Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Briscoe Jr. and Mrs. Lloyd Criswell of Sheridan, and has been making her home in El Campo since the married David Allgayer.

Guests were registered as they entered the patio by Mrs. Harry Briscoe. Games directed by Mrs. James Briscoe were played before the honoree opened her gifts. She was seated with her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Criswell, and her sister Julie, who helped with the registering of each gift. Ceremonies made of tiny baby items, set in net and ribbons, were presented by the hostesses. After she had opened her gifts, Nancy expressed her appreciation to all for attending and for the lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a delicate lace cloth and centered by a floral arrangement of spring flowers in a ceramic holder. Nestled among the flowers were a ceramic baby rattle and bottle, a white teddy bear decorated with touches of pink, blue, yellow and green and highlighted by miniature baby attendants. The baby items were presented by the hostesses.

Hostesses were: Mesdames Lawrence Dossel, A. S. Vavter, Albert Dossel, Eddie Ray Taylor, Henry Kibel and Lorance Johnson.

ATTENDANCE: Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hoidal were in Houston April 24th for the University of Houston School of Music presentation of the 64 member Symphony Wind Ensemble Concert. James Matthews was conductor of the 2 1/2 hour concert which started at 8:00 p.m. in the Music Room of the University Center. The program featured Patricia Spain, soprano soloist, and three guest conductors, Brad Robertson, David E. Smith and the Hollibaugh son Blaine. Blaine conducted "Olympic Rhapsody" by Carl Friedemann and arranged by M. L. Lake. Blaine will graduate in May and is studying teaching at Jackson Intermediate and Pasadena High School, starting with the spring semester.

Daughter For Lloyd Criswells

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Criswell of Dayton, Texas, are the proud parents of a new daughter. Tracey Nicole was born Monday, April 14th in the Cleveland Hospital weighing eight pounds and two ounces. The Criswells have a three-year-old son, Brian.

Happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Criswell of Sheridan. Tracey's great-grandmother, Mrs. Bea Criswell, is a resident of Sheridan, also.

CONVALESCENTS: According to the latest news from her family, plans were made for Mrs. Criswell to turn to her home in Sheridan on Monday, May 5th. She has been in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital where she had surgery on April 23rd.

Zane Briscoe, a former resident of Sheridan, has been in the Ranger Memorial Hospital, Hallettsville. According to reports from his family, he is anxious to get back to his home in Gonzales.

VISITS: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rother and daughters of Houston visited with Mrs. W. H. Warthen in Sheridan Friday night and Saturday.

The Rother family returned to their home in Houston Sunday morning. Mr. Rother left Monday on a business trip to California. Mrs. Warthen traveled to Houston Tuesday to spend a few days with her daughter and grandchildren.

Mrs. Carlton Cody and daughter and son, Mr. Cody, all of Houston, spent the weekend with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Hoidal.

Rhaine Hoidal, University of Houston student, was in Sheridan visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoidal, Friday morning. He left early Sunday for his home in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bulard of Sheridan attended a family reunion Saturday, May 3rd at the Jack Coble home in Belshire. Over 30 attended to enjoy visiting and the delicious meal of barbecue and a variety of covered dishes. All of the immediate family were present, including Mrs. Bulard's three brothers and one sister-in-law. Three generations of the family were represented, with the youngest being 8 months, 7 months and 6 weeks. The three youngest were all first cousins.

Cheetham Cem. Assn. Meet May 26

On Monday, May 26 at 10:30 a.m. the Cheetham Cemetery Association will hold their regular scheduled meeting. The purpose of the meeting will be to conduct a business meeting and discuss care for the coming year (May 1975-76). All are urged to attend and help improve the Cemetery Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Zavevsky of Hallettsville visited with the Lorraine Johnsons for part of the weekend.

Mrs. Lloyd Criswell was in El Campo Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. David Allgayer.

Woodie Crumpton and son Bane visited in Kingsland over the weekend with Mr. Crumpton's brothers, David and Brian, and their families.

Mr. W. Crumpton was in Abilene to attend the two day TOPS Convention, May 2nd and 3rd and to be on hand for their State Recognition.

Wynn Rolf Featured In Baylor Line

The April, 1975, issue of the Baylor Line, the Baylor University ex-students association publication, carried a series on "The Special People" enrolled in the Baylor graduate school.

Among those included in the April issue was Wynn Rolf of 1330 Royal Oaks, Waco, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rolf of Eagle Lake.

The story described, with a picture, the beautiful plants and trees at the Rolf home, a hobby of Wynn and wife Carmen. Wynn received his B.A. and M.S. degrees at Baylor and is in the halfway point on his doctorate. He has taught earth and life sciences classes in Waco schools for the past six years. His wife also is a graduate of Baylor with B.A. and M.A. degrees in speech therapy. They have a six-month old son, Jason.

Burrough Signs Autographs

400 Attend-Fete Lost Thursday; Hear Oiler Burrough

The annual Rice High School All-Sports Banquet was held last Thursday evening at the Rice Commons with over 400 persons present for the outstanding event sponsored this year by the Raider Pep Squad.

During the program, the athletes, both boys and girls, heard an address by Houston Oiler Ken Burrough, wide receiver for the Oilers, and awards were presented to the outstanding athletes for the 1974-75 year.

Miss Debra Parker represented the Pep Squad in giving the opening welcome; Assistant Supt. C. W. DeShazo led in the Pledge of Allegiance; Barry Hager offered the invocation after which a delicious ham menu was served by Mike's of Columbus.

Athletic Director Jack Grammer presided at the introduction of the special guests, the occasion being the annual All-Sports Banquet.
