der of Elks, El Campo, to valedictorian Carol Schoellman.

A scholarship given annually by the Eagle Lake Knights of Columbus, went this year to John Gueck who is a student at Columbus High school.

Principal Fred Gramham addressed the seniors at the close of the awards program urging the seniors to help their family, friends and nation to make this a better place in which to live.

"I hope that you will continue to show the great attitude that you have shown during your years at Rice High School," said the principal.

He urged the members to constantly seek ways in which to improve and to learn by mistakes made over the years.

"Give something back to your country," he stated, "and see the positive and good in whatever you undertake."

He further asked the seniors to throw down any barriers that may have existed while in high school. "It's a fact—that you may never see again some of the classmates beside whom you are seated today," reminded Mr. Gramham, "It's so easy to say, 'I'm sorry' or 'I respect you for what you are'."

He concluded by expressing appreciation for the cooperation of the students while attending high school and added that suggestions on how to make the school better are always welcomed.

Willard Stuart represented the Eagle Lake Rotary Club in presenting a two year scholarship to WCJC to Leroy P. Alvarado; and he represented the Interment Foundation in presenting the four year nursing scholarship to Joyce Rodriguez.

Mr. Carpenter presented a scholarship in behalf of the Garwood Lions Club to Monica R. Bubala; and he presented a scholarship from the Texas Council of Church Related Colleges to Daryl Hunt and Sarah Mathis; and scholarships from St. Mary's University, Texas Council of Church Related Colleges and the State Colleges Tuition Scholarship and the Stovall Scholarship and one from the Benevolent and Protective Or-

Register For WCJC Summer School June 2

Registration for the first six weeks of summer classes at Wharton County Junior College in Wharton has been set for Monday, June 2 in the Administration Building.

WCJC officials emphasize that classes are "for everyone". This includes new high school graduates planning to enroll at WCJC or any other college this fall, those who seek some college semester hours before entering the work market, other adults who wish to renew their education and anyone seeking further education simply as "a means of self-fulfillment".

Summer school provides an excellent opportunity to complete 12 to 14 hours of college work. Classes are scheduled in the morning to allow afternoon to be free for students.

The second six weeks of summer school is July 14-August 22.
