ROCK ISLAND NEWS

MRS. M. I. NICEWANDER

Mrs. Margaret Goodness Buried Sun.

Mrs. Margaret L. Goodness of Rock Island, a longtime resident of this county, succumbed to illness in the Nightingale Hospital in El Campo last Thursday, May 22, at the age of 72.

She was a Nurse's Aide and worked in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital for a number of years.

Funeral services were held from the chapel of the Mill-Bauer Funeral Home at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, May 25th with the Rev. Henry Rolf, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Nada, officiating. Interment was in the Myrtle Cemetery near Rock Island. Serving as pallbearers were: John Konvicka, Norman Hooper, Harold Waits, Wilfred Witting, Lee Frederickson, and Henry Witting.

Mrs. Goodness was born on Oct. 13, 1912 in Worcester, Mass. the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson. Her husband, John F. Goodness and three daughters preceded her in death. A daughter, Mrs. Lee (Penny) Frederickson died on May 9.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Harry McCurdy of Kenal, Alaska and Mrs. Cheryl Brantly of Austin, eight grandchildren, and other relatives and friends.

Friends join in extending deepest sympathy to the family in the loss of this loved one.

Victim In 1974 FB Queen's Accident Expires Contest Set

Mrs. Betty Ann Gonzales of Columbus died in the Caney Valley Hospital in Wharton on May 13th and became the fifth fatality to occur as the result of the collision of two cars on Highway 71 north of Columbus Oct. 6, 1974.

Leon Gonzales Jr. and Gloria Gonzales Pena died in the crash and two other persons reportedly have died previously of injuries received in the accident.

The contest was set for the week of June 23-29, 1975. Entries are judged on poise, personality and appearance.

Little girls 3 years of age to pre-school 6 may enter the Little Miss parade. They must also be daughters of Colorado County Farm Bureau members and must not have participated in this event before.

Talent entries are being encouraged. Entrants must be between 17 and 30 years of age inclusive as of December 1, 1975 and must belong to Farm Bureau families and be amateurs.

Prospects may contact the Farm Bureau office at Columbus or Mrs. Ted Wiese of Eagle Lake, chairman for this special event.
