

Miss Carol Belinda Lehmann, Case Hallub To Wed In August

The pastor of the First Baptist Church in Sheridan, Rev. Wade Graves, with his wife Yolanda and daughters, Debbie and Diana, will leave Wednesday night after midnight prayer services for Miami, Florida. He and his family will attend the Southern Baptist convention, June 10-13, at Johnny Pines, Houston Baptist University students and youth workers, will be in Sheridan and in charge of services Sunday, June 11. The following Sunday, June 11, Leon Williams will be in charge of the days services. A special invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

CONVALESCENTS - Mrs. Norman L. Botard of Houston is still in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston where she was taken the night she sustained injuries in a collision with a tank truck, one mile east of Sheridan. She will remain there for weeks to come. According to reports from the family, Mrs. Botard is some improved. Her young son, Norman Lee, Jr., also taken to Galveston, is at home with his father in Houston. James Wade, her 19 year old son, also injured, remained in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital until last Monday. He, too, is at home.

Mrs. R. E. Myers of Cervo, has been visiting with the C. H. Hollub in Sheridan, Texas. The couple plan an August day through Friday of last week. The Hollubs and Mrs. Myers were in north Texas visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bush and daughters of Roscoe, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Lehmann of Lockhart announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Belinda, to Case Allen Hallub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Hollub of Sheridan.

Carol is a 1972 graduate of Lockhart High School and Durham Business College of Austin, Texas. She is a 1971 Rice High School graduate, Alhambra, and will be a junior at the University of Texas, Austin, where she is majoring in accounting.

Case is a 1972 graduate of Lockhart High School and Durham Business College of Austin, Texas. He is a 1971 Rice High School graduate, Alhambra, and will be a junior at the University of Texas, Austin, where she is majoring in accounting.

For unmarked graves has been made. At the present time Mr. and Mrs. Lorance Johnson are serving as caretakers and doing an excellent job. Seventy-one markers have been placed on some of the oldest graves, which are in need of these. Additional hurricane testing was added to completely enclose the cemetery; benches and restroom facilities were provided. These additions and the caretakers' salary have been paid from the association trust fund donations.

The regular meeting of the cemetery association, held at the home of Mrs. Blaine Hollub, was held on Sunday, June 4, at 10 a.m. Sunday, May 25 homing activities began at the First Baptist Church of Sheridan. Gary Smith of Houston acted as Master of ceremonies of the day's program and also provided special music during the day. Rev. Claude Dunlap, a former pastor of the church, now residing in Houston, brought the annual message.

The noon meal of barbecue and all the trimmings was served. Following dinner all gathered in the auditorium and the program continued until three o'clock.

Those providing special music during the day were Gary Smith, the soloist of the First Baptist Church, Rachel Botard accompanied by Janet Kern; and the "Disciples", sponsored by First
