Miss Judith Bubela Becomes Bride Of Darrell Pavlicek On May 24th

RECEPTION FOLLOWS
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Nada K.J.T. Hall. The registration table was covered in long raffia white net, and the bride's book and a white wicker basket containing rice bags. It was tended by Janice Shoop, niece of the bride, and Stephanie Schneider, cousin of the bride. The bride's table was covered in ruffled white net and featured a five tiered wedding cake decorated with cascades of spun sugar apple blossoms in three shades of pink, with tiny pink ribbons of the valley and pastel green ferns. Also on spun sugar on the cake, white spun sugar shell borders and ribbons surrounded the tiers and a lovely filigree heart with cherries and apple blossoms topped the confection. A large silver con-delabra and the bride's bouquet completed the table decorations.

REHEARSAL DINNER
Miss Judith Bubela and Darrell Pavlicek were honored at a rehearsal dinner given by the groom's parents at Mike's in El Campo on Thursday, May 22, at 8:30 p.m. A dinner of roast beef, green beans, potatoes, cole slaw, pickles, cake and tea was served. The bride and groom-to-be gave their attendants remembrance gifts. All reported a very enjoyable evening.

A Message To All... Wage-Earners, Farmers And Merchants Here's a way to save for retirement and take it off your income tax.

Now there's actually a way to build a fund for your retirement and lower your present income taxes at the same time. Just open an Individual Retirement Account at The First National Bank of Eagle Lake. Anyone who earns income and isn't covered by a retirement plan can qualify for this new program. With an Individual Retirement Account, you can deposit as much as 15% of your income up to a maximum of $1,500 a year. And every deposit you make into I.R.A. can be deducted from your Federal income tax return. Not only that, all interest earned on your deposits will compound tax free. You don't pay any taxes until payments from the account begin coming in to you—usually after you've retired. It's easy to create an Individual Retirement Account at First National Bank and it won't cost you a dime.
