Something Special for You

Many working people like you qualify for tax-sheltered savings at CCFS&L

Your deposits to an individual Retirement Account will be 100% deductible from your 1975 income tax.

If you are not now covered by a pension or retirement plan (even if you may someday qualify for such a company benefit) you can build a tax-sheltered savings account today with CCFS&L. Every dollar you deposit this year - up to $1500 (or 15% of your annual income, whichever is less) is not reported in your 1975 tax. Earnings on your tax-sheltered account are also free from tax - until you retire. (And since earning power normally drops off after retirement, you may pay taxes on the earnings at a considerably lower rate than now.) It only takes a few minutes to open an individual Retirement Account and there is no charge for establishing this special savings account. Find out if you can qualify for CCFS&L tax-sheltered savings. There's no obligation-but you need to act now to get the maximum tax advantage for 1975.

Last Rites For Miss Sallie F. Jones Tues.

Friends and relatives were deeply saddened to learn of the death of Miss Sallie Fletcher Jones on Sunday, June 15 at 2:00 a.m. following only five days of illness in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital. This was her first time ever to stay in a hospital.

The body laid in state at the family home at 401 Walnut until time for the funeral services from the Colly Memorial United Methodist Church Tuesday, June 17 at 3 p.m. The Rev. David Edgar, pastor of the Colly Church, officiated.

The Rev. J. W. Griffin, a former pastor of Colly Church, and now a pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Austin, gave an opening prayer.

Harry Anderson sang "How Great Thou Art," Miss Sallie's favorite hymn. She was accompanied on the piano by Jerro Higgins.

She was placed in a final rest in the Woodland Cemetery, Mill-Bauer Funeral Home was in charge. Pallbearers were Robert Samuel Markley, D. Beason, Arthur Anderson, Arthur Mahalit, Jay Anderson and Travis Weigandt.

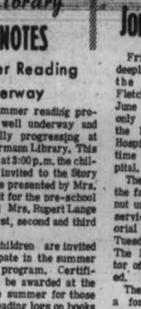

Mrs. Jones was born January 22, 1899 in Blackstone, Virginia. Her parents were William Thomas and Eleanor Comally Jones. She was the daughter of a grandmother and her sister went to live with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffin in Matthews community in 1910 and they later moved to Eagle Lake in 1913 to the home in which she lived until her death. Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Curtis A. (Marie) McClanahan of Eagle Lake, a number of cousins, and a devoted and very active member of the Methodist Church. For many years she has taught Sunday school classes of different ages and could quote scripture from the Bible fluently. She was a member of the Mammie Jones and Anita Wilcox Circle of the church and the Garden Club.

Organ music was played prior to the service and a favorite hymn, "Rock of Ages," during the service.
