

Miss Margaret Ellanese Christal Becomes Bride Of Alex Williams, Jr.

MR. AND MRS. ALEX JACK WILLIAMS, JR.

Miss Margaret Ellanese Christal, daughter of Mrs. Joyce Christal and granddaughter of Mrs. Margaret Albridge of Eagle Lake, became the bride of Alex Jack Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jack Williams, Sr. on Saturday, June 7 in a candlelit ceremony at the Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church of this city. The Rev. T. Collins officiated the ceremony. For the double ring ceremony, the church was beautifully decorated with a snow-white arch garlanded with green ferns accented with pink and lilac carnations and sweetheart candelabra. Single spiral candelabra with a tuff of green fern were placed at the rear entrance of the church. The family pew were marked with green and white pews.

A prelude of traditional wedding music was performed by Mrs. Nannie Castle of Eagle Lake, organist of Greater Mt. Olive, and Miss Sheryl Shorter of Eagle Lake. Soloists were Michael Axel of Altair and Miss Debra Smith of Eagle Lake.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Alfred Albridge, chose a formal gown of white. The natural waistline gown featured a round neckline with a roll collar of sheer polyester overlaid with lace encrusted with pearl beads. The remaining bodice was of sheer polyester, beautifully layered with daisies and pearl beads. The sheer sleeves were accented with single rows of Alton lace. Completing the elegance of the gown was the full skirt which fell to slipper-length in front and to a court length train in back. The sides and train were highlighted heavily with lace and pearls.

A lace caplet beaded with pearls held tiers of silk French imported illusion. It cascaded over the shoulder to elbow length. Her white shoes and gloves were also highlighted with lace and pearls. The bride's gown was designed and tailored by her grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Albridge.

She carried a small pink prayer book which was given to her as a birthday gift from her mother. The prayer book held one large lilac orchid. Completing the creation was an array of baby's breath and small lilac flowers.

Miss Joylyn Christal served as maid of honor and Mrs. Debra Pipkins served as matron of honor. Dr. William were Miss Cynthia Christal and Miss Sharonda Christal, all four sisters of the bride; Mrs. Arlene Norris and Mrs.

Sunshine Class Meets With Mrs. Havens

The Sunshine Class of Calvary Memorial United Methodist Church met at the home of Hazel Havens for a covered dish luncheon on Thursday, July 24 at noon. Twelve members and guests enjoyed a delicious meal of fried chicken, vegetables, salads, cornbread, cake and pie.

A short business meeting was held. Cards were signed and sent to shut-ins.

The secretary, Nells Shell, read two interesting articles, "My Country" and "The Patchwork Quilt." The group always enjoys Nellie's contributions to the meetings. Jonie Mae read "The Value of the Bible" and closed with a beautiful verse sent to her by a dear friend, "This is Friendship."

After the Class Benediction everyone enjoyed visiting.

Rice Bag Party Honors Debbie Sommerlatte

On the evening of Tuesday, July 22 at 7:30 a.m., Miss Debbie Sommerlatte, bride-elect of Pat Mascheck, was honored with a rice bag party at the Lawrence Ballman home. Upon arrival the future bride and her mother, Mrs. Lonnie Sommerlatte, were presented corsages of yellow daisies.

Guests who assisted in making the rice bags of yellow tied with green ribbon were Carolyn Burrow, Becky Stenke, Sharon Zbrank, Hena Popp, Dana Wiese, Margarek Wilcox, Melody Farris, Julie

The refreshment table was beautifully decorated with a lilac tablecloth. The centerpiece was a floating fountain which sprayed red punch. Sandwiches were also served. Immediately following the reception there was an after-party.

The honeymoon took the couple to New Orleans, La. The bride is presently employed as a Medication Nurse Assistant in Sealy, and the groom is presently employed at Kallina Dryer. The couple will remain in Eagle Lake until August 26 when they will leave for Virginia where the groom will be stationed as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army.

Deadline For Early Registration At WCJC Aug. 8

A record 1100 "earlybirds" students have signed up at Wharton County Junior College in Wharton for the fall semester during the early registration period which will end August 8.

The regular registration date this year is August 26 but early registrants find many advantages that include a wider choice of times, days and instructors for courses.

Early registrants must have provided the college with a high school transcript or equivalency diploma if enrolling for the first time, or a transcript from each college attended if transferring.

American College Testing Program (ACT) or the College Entrance Examination Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) are also requirements except for veterans and others at least twenty-one years of age.

Those who have not taken either the ACT or SAT tests may take advantage of the Residential Tests on July 31 or September 13 at 8 a.m. in Room 102 of the J.R. Peace Building. The fee is $7.

Contact the registrar's office at 532-3560, extension 24, for further information or write to WCJC, 911 Bolling Highway, Wharton, Texas 77488.

Luncheon For Miss Sommerlatte

Miss Debra Sommerlatte, bride-elect of Patrick Mascheck, was the honoree at a luncheon on Saturday, June 28 at the home of Mrs. Simon Sinclair. Other hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Harold Lloyd Williams and Mrs. Michael Cooper.

Joining Miss Sommerlatte were a number of friends from her graduating class. Out-of-town guests were Miss Tamie Keton of Wharton and Miss Cynthia Mascheck, sister of the groom, of Houston. Special guests for the luncheon were Mrs. Lonnie Sommerlatte, mother of the bride; Mrs. Sam Davidson and Mrs. Henrietta Sommerlatte, grandmothers of the bride; Mrs. Victor Mascheck, mother of the groom; Mrs. Bob Curry and Mrs. David Henschel.

A luncheon plate of chicken salad, fresh fruit salad with poppyseed dressing, finger sandwiches, brownies and iced tea was served. The hostesses presented Miss Sommerlatte with a vegetable bowl to her chosen china as a remembrance of the occasion.

Most Alaskans live in one of four cities, with some 145,000—nearly half the state's population—clustered in greater Anchorage. Another 60,000 or more Eskimos, Indians, and Aleuts live in small villages scattered across half a million square miles of wilderness.
