

Wintermann Library NOTES

13 Get Texas Reading Certificates

The last story hour was a big success. Children were transported to the Wintermann home for the "Legend of the Lake" which is discussed in another article in this issue.

Thirteen children received Texas State Reading Certificates for having read 10 books with 11 others eligible so far in the summer reading program at the Eagle Lake library. A number of others will complete their requirements and receive their certificates within the next week or so.

Those receiving their certificates were: Selma Adams, Laura Lynn Appell, Becky Benne, Lisa Corman, Carol Gerton, John Harborth, Donald Hollis, William Hollis, Patrick Isenhower, Susan

Grandson For Gen. & Mrs. Joe Frazier

Kalusa, Richard Klekar, Robert Klekar and Julia Rosegrim. After receiving these all the children were given appropriate book marks as mementos of a summer of reading pleasure.

Everyone present had a most enjoyable afternoon and expressed their sincere appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. David Wintermann for their gracious hospitality. The Wintermanns, in turn, expressed their delight in having the group as their guests. It was truly a wonderful finale to what has been a rewarding and successful summer reading program.

The following have reading certificates ready to be picked up at the library: Brian Alan Arbour, Laura Ann Arbour, Laura Brown, Lynette Catherine, Renee Karasch, Connie Przek, Donna Sue Przek and Michael Sibley. "Jarry" Frazier, Elaine Gerton and Kenneth Wiese received their certificates this past week also.

Appreciation is expressed once more to all those who assisted by Paul New. With a Bicentennial emphasis, the reading program had as its theme "Folk Heroes of America". Seventeen of the 22 students enrolled qualified for the certificate issued by the Texas State Library for reading as many as 12 books within the duration of the Summer Reading Program, making them members of the Texas Reader's Club. Twelve of the seventeen qualifying for certificates read an additional 12 books, thus earning a special prize of $1.00 and six Bicentennial half dollars.

On August 7th a swimming party was held for the reading program members at the Sheridan pool when their certificates were issued and prizes given. After swimming, refreshments of sandwiches, Coke, lemonade, and chips were served. Those providing refreshments were: Doris Owens, Linda Owens, Dorothy Klekar, Mary Ashley, Mandie Townsend, Robin Pence, Dolly Botsch, and Mrs. Micky Ray. Students other than Tina Graham earning certificates were: Micky Ray, Pecca Coble, Vance Pence, Lisa Owens, Billy Townsend, Mike Sonntag, John Wunderslick, Jimmie Ashley, Jimmy Botard, Annie Mostek, Kenneth Mostek, David Mostek, Patsy Botard, Keith Pence, Gayla Botard and Kevin Brisco.

Mrs. Reinhardt wishes to use this means of thanking workers and all who provided refreshments for the swimming party or helped in any way to make the 1975 Summer Reading Program a success. Also a special note of appreciation is expressed by her for memorial contributions received in the past. This is a continuing thing and the library is supported by these contributions. The continuing thing is the community and the community is supported by these contributions. The continuing thing is the community and the community is supported by these contributions.

On Tuesday, August 19th at 10 a.m. the Pre-School Story Hour will resume meeting each Tuesday, beginning with the fifth consecutive year. A backyard Bible School was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kutzler in Sheridan August 3rd through 8th from 9:30 until 11:00 a.m. The Rev. Wade Ingel, pastor of the First Baptist Church, served as principal. There were 23 of the community youth enrolled with Janet Kane and Mrs. T. A. George taught the pre-school students; Mrs. Jim Kutzler, the mothers, assisted by Mrs. Gerald Reinhardt; and Mrs. Wade Ingel taught the youth, assisted by Mrs. S. M. Fuller and Janice Fuller. Mrs. G. H. Hollub served as secretary for the Bible School.

On Friday, before the ending of the Bible School, a volunteer road was held. Along with daily Bible Study, a period of recreation was supervised and refreshments were provided daily by the ladies of the church. The school was sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Sheridan.

Visits: Mrs. Melvin Rother and daughter of Houston have been visiting with Mrs. W. H. Warren. Blaine Hollub was in Sheridan visiting with his parents.

Last Rites Held Sun. For Prep Simmons

Friends learned with regret of the death of R. Preston (Prep) Simmons, Saturday, August 9 at 3 a.m. in the Columbus Hospital. He had been ill for a week. Funeral services were held from the Columbus Funeral Home, August 10 at 2 p.m. with interment in Lakeside Cemetery in Eagle Lake.

Mr. Simmons was born September 8, 1901 in Eagle Lake to Julia Walker and Richard (Dick) Simmons. He resided in Colorado and Wharton counties during his life span as a farmer until his retirement several years ago. He served for a number of years as Constable in the Columbus Justice of Peace precinct.

Survivors include two brothers, the Pryor Simmons of Austin and his wife, Mrs. W. Simmons of Columbus; three nephews and one niece. His parents and one brother, Robert Simmons of this city, preceded him in death.
