STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

AUSTIN - Organized crime is involved in Texas prostitution, bookmaking, fencing stolen goods, car theft and drugs, according to the latest report of Texas Organized Crime Prevention Council.

The Council's latest annual report estimates $1.1 billion in illegal bets were placed with bookies last year, turning profits of nearly $121 million.

Bookies were said to be operating in Belton, Brownville, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, Houston, Midland, Odessa and Wichita Falls and regularly contacting other cities and 119 in other states.

Pharmaceuticals, liquor and professional fees and salaries of judges were pegged as the state's largest organized crime activity of 1974.

However, the Council said 1,628 prostitutes, 635 procurers and 69 madams have been identified by the Texas Department of Public Safety over the last seven years.

Income to organized crime from prostitution was estimated at about $127 million annually, with prostitutes earning an average of $1,500 a week.

The Council said no Texas membership in La Cosa Nostra has been identified but more than 200 Texans are believed associated with the Dixie Mafia operating in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and other southeastern states.

Hot Oil Probed
Atty. Gen. John Hill and the FBI have joined in the investigation of an alleged major crude oil theft ring which might extend into Louisiana.

Hill said thefts have occurred in West Texas (three were arrested in the Ballinger area) and in the Cherokee Field of Milam County.

A Railroad Commission representative said "spotters" for the thefts were participating truck drivers and early morning haulers to load the oil and haul it to a refinery with bogus credentials from an East Texas independent oil operator.

Ray Payne, Railroad Commission field operations director, said a syndicate appears to have been set up to steal the costly crude oil. Hill said he suspects an organized theft ring, possibly extending across state lines. Some operators complained of thousands of dollars in losses.

"Recovery Begins"
Texas economic recovery, after downturn, is starting slowly, according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Encouraging signs included rising urban residential construction, a decrease in the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate, lengthened work week and improving job picture in industrial areas.

Austin, Dallas-Fort Worth and Houston areas reported large job increases. Corpus Christi, McAllen-Pharr-Marshall, Midland-Odessa, Tyler and Waco areas showed small increases in June. El Paso and Lubbock registered significant decreases in June employment.

Industry spokesmen said inflation and increasing "average loss" cost will force rates up. Incentive frequency may be declined slightly.

The Board granted an average 8.6 per cent rate increase for auto insurance effective last January 1.

Insurance Hearing Set
The State Insurance Board tentatively set its annual hearing on automobile coverage rates October 1, and the industry is expected to file another increase will be asked.

Industry spokesmen said inflation and increasing "average loss" cost will force rates up. Incentive frequency may be declined slightly.

Ribbon - Cutting at Cable TV Office

The Eagle Lake Cable TV office formally opened the office on Boothe Drive Thursday morning with a ribbon-cutting ceremony followed by an all-day open house.

Communications Services, Inc. of Kansas, owns the local Cable TV company and vice-president and general manager Paul Wilcox and wife, Sue, of Manhattan were on hand for a breakfast given by the company at Jack's Restaurant early Thursday morning.

Mr. Wilcox outlined for the group the history of Cable Television and told about the parent company which was incorporated in Kansas in July 1968. "Eagle Lake is the 25th system put into operation by Communications Services, Inc. and has the largest amount of latest equipment available."

Mr. Wilcox explained that the company will send out bills for service once every two months to save the normal down on postage expenses, and Eagle Lake is the first office on the system to go on a "pay as you go" basis. Wilcox told the group that the service is foremost in the mind in the company and there is no charge for service calls and the company has a policy of prompt service, "the same day the call is received, and the bills are sent out on the 15th of the month."

He stressed that the cable television company is a service company and will do its utmost to see that service is uninterrupted.

The vice president stated that the firm has contracts with Central Power and Light Co. and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for use of their poles and their franchise with the city permits the use of roads, alleys and streets as needed to install the service. In return the company will pay to the city a 3% gross receipts tax.

Mr. Wilcox commented that subscription to the service and the reception to date has been better than anticipated. He said that by the end of the week, well over 300 subscribers had been hooked on to the service.

In a question period that followed, the general manager explained the company's credit policy, commented that equipment for the national news and weather service to be offered on Channel 6 will be coming soon, and stated that the service is voluntary and can be discontinued at any time desired without the necessity of removing cables installed in the home.

Other company officials on hand for the breakfast were J. D. Staats of Youkum the Regional Manager for Texas; Mrs. Fay Coleway, Regional Office Manager; Richard Arlt of Columbus, who will be in charge of the Eagle Lake system; Gene Baker, Dick O'benhaus, Beulah Miller and Roy D. Van Nort City Manager T. J. Smith; Emily Stiles, president of the C. of C.; Mark Anderson, past president of the C. of C.; Wm. H. Harrison of the First National Bank; television artist John Metzger; editor Fred R. Franks.

Following the breakfast at Boothe Drive the new office was held and winners of the three prizes awarded were a black and white Sony TV set won by Herbert Marquart; a year's free service won by Cook Brooks; and six months of free service to Patricia Meadows.

At the conclusion of the day's activities, a drawing was held and winners of the three prizes awarded were a black and white Sony TV set won by Herbert Marquart; a year's free service won by Cook Brooks; and six months of free service to Patricia Meadows.

THIS DAY
September 5, 1975 - On this day, one hundred and sixty-six years ago, a strategic victory during the Revolutionary War. The patriots won from Shippan Point near Stamford, Connecticut. They crossed Long Island Sound, surprised 500 loyalists at Lloyd Neck, New York and captured most of them without losing a man. The battle took place near Sagamore Hill, where modern Americans tourists visit the shrine of President Theodore Roosevelt.

No Pollution From Rice Floodwaters

Preliminary work by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station shows that nitrogen and phosphorus concentrations in rice floodwater are very low and unlikely to cause pollution.

Dr. Fred Turner of the Texas A&M University Agricultural Experiment Station, Beaumont, says nitrate concentration is below the contaminated level for drinking water proposed by the Environmental Protection Agency.

Encouraging signs included rising urban residential construction, a decrease in the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate, lengthened work week and improving job picture in industrial areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stancik Honored On 60th Wedding Anniv.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stancik of Columbus were honored August 17 at Hillcrest on their 60th wedding anniversary. A barbecue dinner with all the trimmings was served to close friends and family members. An open house from 3 to 5 p.m. in the afternoon also honored the couple.

Hosts for this occasion were the couple's six children: Mrs. Clarence (Orie Mae) Horrid of Eagle Lake; Mrs. Lloyd (Lillie) Ponzitach, Lee Roy Gandy; Melvin of Eagle Lake; and Mrs. Clinton Stancik; daughter-in-law, of Columbus, Clinton, the eldest son, and his wife, passed away three years ago.

Flower arrangements from friends decorated the dining table. The registration table at the entrance of the hall was covered with a white cloth and netteries and held the book of memories and a candle-lit table with many new or old mementos and relatives of the family visited with the couple in the open house in the afternoon.
