Lions' Parade, Carnival Success

Despite the threat of inclement weather, the parade to shine just as the big parade got rolling for the Eagle Lake Noon Lions Club's annual street carnival held Saturday and the event was proclaimed by the Lions and all who enjoyed the event as one of the best and perhaps one of the most profitable ever held.

Bill Appell, chairman of the parade committee, and his helpers got the parade rolling at 5:00 p.m. sharp and large numbers of citizens lined the parade route on East Main St. to the parade's final ending at the Eagle Lake Community Center grounds where the carnival activities were staged.

From the opening color guard comprised of Trudy O'Connell and Carolyn Bowen on horseback to the final entry, the parade's final ending at the Eagle Lake Community Center grounds where the carnival activities were staged.

Another popular feature was the entry of the Shrine's Motor Brigade and Motor Patrol from Houston on their miniature cars and cycles. They performed intricate parade turns along the parade route.

Other entries that drew applause along the route were Shirley, Lions and Collette train, an entry by the cheerleaders, the Marilyn Thomas twirlers, the Alpha Delta Phi queen, Frances Dromgoole, Dan Segner's antique cars, the Eagle Lake 4-11 marchers, the Wallis Lions queen, the Evening Lions golf cart entry, the Chamber

Shriners' Motor Brigade & Patrol

Commerce car and decorated bicycles and horseback riders; also an entry by the new 21 Ft. Motorcade and by the Sheridan Lions Club.

Beautiful floats were entered by the Colorado County Federal Savings and Loan, Central Power and Light, the Young Chamber of Commerce and by the Ballettville C. of C. One of the prettiest entries was the float by MAYC featuring the newly crowned MAYC sweetheart and the four runners-up.

The Cub Scouts had a marching unit and there were vehicles from the fire department. Commercial entries were by Steve Taylor Ford, Lyle Motors, Inc., Eagle Lake Impelment Co., Eagle Tractor, Inc., Dairy Delia and Mac's Marine Service.

Another new entry this year was the golf cart parade led by the Alabama-Consolidated Indian Reservation in the Lions' parade.

PRIZE WINNERS: Best of Show by Scott's Snack Shack, best decorated bicycles were by the Shrine's Motor Brigade and Motor Patrol from Houston on their miniature cars and cycles. They performed intricate parade turns along the parade route.

Other entries that drew applause along the route were Shirley, Lions and Collette train, an entry by the cheerleaders, the Marilyn Thomas twirlers, the Alpha Delta Phi queen, Frances Dromgoole, Dan Segner's antique cars, the Eagle Lake 4-11 marchers, the Wallis Lions queen, the Evening Lions golf cart entry, the Chamber

Here is a portion of the colorful Arabia Temple Shriners' Motor Patrol and Motor Brigade which performed in the Lions Club Parade last Saturday.

ROCK ISLAND NEWS

HOME FROM HOSPITAL: Astoria Kula returned home last week from several days spent in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital. His friends wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson of Oxford Junction, Iowa left last Wednesday for their home after spending the past three weeks in the Kula home care. Mrs. H. A. Johnson returned home early last week from a visit to her daughter, Miss Laraine Johnson, in Austin. Miss Johnson spent the Labor Day weekend here and her mother accompanied her back to Austin.

TURTLE RACE WINNERS: At 9:00 p.m. the exciting turtle races were held with six best winners, each receiving a $25 Savings Bond. Pete Reading, Melissa Wilcox, American Rice Growers Association, Billy Brown, Duncan and Son and Emily Herrin. In the run-off of the best winners, Mrs. Herrin's turtle captured the $100 Savings Bond prize.

After the races a $25 basket of groceries was awarded to the Ann Rollins family and the beautiful collector's doll contributed by the Beauty Box of Eagle Lake went to Mrs. Barbara Bryant.

The Eagle Lake Noon Lions extend sincere thanks to all who participated in the event and attendance at the event which will make it possible for the local Lions to sponsor many worthy local community projects. "We thank you, one and all," said Ed Gay, president of the Noon Lions.

Addicks Youth Hurt In Accident Monday

Michael Addicks, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Addicks, was taken to the Eagle Lake Community Hospital by the Eagle Lake Ambulance unit Monday afternoon after an injury in an accident on Cat Spring Road.

It was reported that he attempted to jump on the back of a moving car driven by his brother, when he slipped and fell to the pavement. He was admitted to the hospital for examination and X-ray for a possible back injury.

The accident occurred at around 5:30 p.m. just outside the city limits.

Mrs. Georgia Adams this is your ticket for a free car wash at Johnny's Kwik Kat Wash located next to Johnny's 66 Station in Eagle Lake. Clip this out and present at Johnny's for a free car wash effective thru Sept. 23, 1975.
