MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH EDWIN JOHNSON

Miss Bonnie Brown Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Carlos Sneed and the late Brown Thompson, and Joseph Edwin Johnson, son of Mrs. Charles Edwin Johnson and the late Charles Edwin Johnson of Altair, were united in the sacrament of matrimony on Friday, September 12, 1975 at 6 p.m. in Kerrville, Texas.

The Reverend Harold Dean Madsen officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Bruce Thompson of Temple, Texas.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents on Knapp Road, a Mexican wedding fiesta theme was carried out and was very appropriate as the bride's handmaid Mexican wedding dress complimented her lace mantilla, a childhood gift from her mother brought back to her from a trip to Spain to be used for her wedding.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor wore white handmaid peasant blouse trimmed in Mexican lace and coppper colored dirndl skirts with a tiny green, white and tan velvet tie belt. The groomsmen and best man wore French designed brown garbade slacks and beige Mexican wedding shirts.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length eggshell cotton gown hand embroidered in Mexican motifs accented with cotton handmaid white lace and trimmed in red and green velvet ribbons.

The mother of the groom selected a Mexican import with ivory tulle blouse with lace inserts and long dirndl skirt in a hand-drawn design of belly green, blue and white.

BRIDE'S ATTENDANTS
The attendants were Patricia Cain of Denver, Colorado, maid of honor; and bridesmaids, Dana Speakman, Frances Rose Mosty, and Jan Pollard, all of Austin.

A string comb provided the music for the guests as they enjoyed a variety of Mexican food served on tables centered with multi-colored arrangements of fruits and flowers, which were also placed throughout the garden.

LIVE IN HOUSTON
After a wedding trip to San Antonio the couple will be at home in Houston where the groom is associated with Weather Engineering. The new Mrs. Johnson attended the University of Texas and graduated from Western States University in Gunnison, Colorado. The groom attended Schreiner Institute and Junior College and the University of St. Edwards in Austin.
