AUSTIN: The AUSTIN STATESMEN has come out against the new constitution because it would provide for the state to give owners of the Texas & Pacific Railroad public lands for the railroad to be built on. This continues to be a big controversy.

FORT WORTH: Down goes the price of meat. Pratt & Knight have succombed to the pressure of public opinion, and offer a matutinal steak of the festive bovine at the ridiculously low figures of five cents a pound. Now beef steaks do not taste so strong of greenbacks.

GALVESTON: Sotera Pena, the well known restauranteur, has returned from Philadelphia where he has rented a good location for the victualizing of Texas visitors to the Centennial Exposition.

ELLIS COUNTY: The Ellis' County Democratic Convention convened at Waxahachie All the different precincts were fully represented. A resolution was adopted indorsing (sic) the administration of Governor Coke.

WASHINGTON COUNTY: The Brenham Opera House is nearly completed, and is indeed a fine structure.

HOUSTON: J. A. Finch, shot through the lungs Christmas, has recovered so far as to return home with his mother to Galveston. He was shot several times during the war, I us to make our chief investand has about got so used to it that he "... don't much care for bullets now."

GALVESTON: The Market for our leading staple (cotton) continues to be dull without any actual decline in prices, but with an unusual disparity between the figures asked by factors and the prices which the latter are willing to concede. Advices have not been encouraging, the New York and the Liverpool markets both showing weakness at the close for spot as well as futures and arrivals.
