Houston's Ford Elected H-GAC Pres. For '76

The gavel of the Presidency of the Houston-Galveston Area Council in 1976 was passed to Councilman Homer Ford of the City of Houston by delegates to the H-GAC Annual Meeting last month.

Councilman Ford succeeds County Judge Lester C. Crane of Colorado County who served as President in 1975.

At the H-GAC Annual Meeting last month, Judge Crane gave the H-GAC membership his observations on the continuing need for region-wide cooperation through the Houston-Galveston Area Council.

"As the year 1975 drew to a close and we began reflecting on the activities and achievements of the region, I am proud to see the H-GAC continue to be an almost unbelievable unfolding of events that will open to the public the growth of our region."

"Each year, the Houston-Galveston Area Council, through its observations on the continuing need for region-wide cooperation through the Houston-Galveston Area Council, has been instrumental in the development of the region."

"Today, no county, city, or local government can afford to ignore its transportation, crime, water quality, health, and other problems without some type of cooperation with its neighbors."

Which Law is Binding?

III. LIMITED NATURE OF THE LAW 1. It was given to the Israelites only. (Deut. 10:1)

2. It was added because of transgression. (Gal. 3:19) 3. It was a shadow of good things to come. (Heb. 10:1-3)

4. It was not given to the Gentiles. (Rom. 2:14) 5. It was to last until Christ came. (Gal. 3:19)

6. It was a schoolmaster to bring the Jews to Christ. (Gal. 3:24) 7. It came to fulfill the law. (Mt. 5:17)

8. He took it out of the way, nailing it to the cross. (Col. 2:14) 9. Therefore, we are not under the law but under a new and living way. (Heb. 10:20)

IV. WHICH LAW IS BINDING TODAY? 1. Jesus came to establish a better covenant. (Heb. 8:7-9)

2. The Law was perfect for the purpose for which it was given. However, it was only a shadow. (Heb. 10:1-3)

3. The Law of Moses was a state law and was given to the people and not the thoughts. But the law of Christ is a spiritual law and "goes beyond the actions and reaches into the heart. (Mt. 5:28)

4. None of the Ten Commandments as such are a part of the law of Christ. However, the principles taught in nine of the Ten Commandments are part of the Christian dispensation. No part of the fourth commandment, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," is included in the duties of the Christian Age.

Augustine has well said: "The Old Testament is the New Testament concealed; The New Testament is the Old Testament revealed."
