RHS BAND MEMBERS, GUESTS ENTERTAINED AT BANQUET

Roy Barryhill Presents Musical Program

The fourth annual Rice High School Raider Band Banquet was held in the Commons of the high school on Tuesday night of last week and the bandsmen and guests were thoroughly entertained; and outstanding bandsmen were recognized.

Wayne Pirtle, president of the band council, gave the welcome and expressed appreciation to parents and others for their support and help in m[illegible] the 1975-76 band year one of the best ever.

After the invocation by Drum Major Laurel Anderson, a delicious barbecued beef and sausage supper was served by caterer Jerry Mikeska and staff.

Sheryl Smith, historian for the band, presented an interesting discussion of the year's activities in a humorous discussion of "This Year In Band."

D'Ann Davison, secretary of the band council, introduced the speaker, Roy Barryhill, choir and band director of the Huntsville Junior High School in Huntsville, Texas. Mr. Barryhill entertained with a number of vocal selections and he provided his own accompaniment on the guitar.

Barryhill brought loud applause with one musical selection using a bow and a hand saw as an instrument. He discussed the importance of music and participation in the band commenting that "music is a vital necessity in society - in your life and mine."

He commended the bandsmen for the spirit and dedication that they exhibit in band. "You learn to work as a team and a unit and this will be important in future life."

Barryhill, a former member of a U.S.Navy band, later performed with a number of noted artists in Lake Tahoe and Las Vegas before returning to college and later becoming a band and choir director at Huntsville.

AWARDS PRESENTED

Floyd Spenrath, director of the Raider Band, commended the young men and women for their cooperation and diligence during the year. He noted the band is working toward the Sight Reading and Concert competition in April and also toward an overnight trip to San Antonio to take part in the San Jacinto Day parade and celebration.

Janice Kallina represented the band council in presenting awards to bandsmen who sold the most candy for funds for the trip to San Antonio. First went to Janie Gonzales, second to Ben Anderson, and third to Wayne Pirtle.

Mr. Spenrath named top marchers in the band for the past year, including: senior Beryl Shorter, junior James Young, sophomore Jane Dostal, and freshman Ishmeal Perez.

The director presented the special band award for outstanding service and participation in the band to Clifford Hodde; and also presented awards to Janice Kallina and Kathy Frybert for their special assistance to the band; and an award to drum major Laurel Anderson.

Outstanding musicians and band sweethearts will be named at the spring concert to be given by the Raider band later in the school year.

Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Hear Top Speakers

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clipson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brunner, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Duncan, Andy Rolf, Clifford Evoritt, and Miss Julie Evoritt attended the convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in Galveston last week.

The first day they heard John Connally rip into Congress for its failure to come up with a sensible energy program. Tuesday they heard from Wray Finney, President of the American National Cattlemen's Association, and from Governor Dolph Briscoe, a former president of T.S.C.R.A.

At the meeting of the Marketing Committee it was pointed out that cattlemen lost money because of the drop in the prices they received. Yet there was no similar drop in retail meat prices because the cost of slaughtering, shipping, and then processing the meat actually increased due to union restrictions. However, it was predicted that later in the year cattle prices would be stronger.

ESTATE TAX EXEMPTION

In the Legislative Committee it was learned that the Association is backing a bill raising the exemption from Federal Estate Taxes to $200,000 from $60,000 so that family farms will have a better chance to remain intact during these times of inflation. Another proposal being backed is to base the value of farm land for tax purposes on its productivity rather than on its market price. The Association opposes the Land Use Bill which would give the Federal Government power to regulate the use of privately owned land.

In the Animal Health Committee it was found that the Department of Agriculture is moving more toward the Association's position that the use of vaccine is the best way to control brucellosis. However, the Association restated its position that an unbiased committee created by Congress should be set up to study the whole brucellosis program, because the committee set up by the Department of Agriculture can hardly be considered unbiased. It was further learned that Mexico will soon open a plant to produce sterile screwworm flies. It will certainly help to keep screwworms from coming back into the United States. The bad news is that Allied Chemical will no longer make Mirex, the useful fire ant deterrent, because of squabbles with the Environmental Protection Agency.

There was a trade show in connection with the convention. Items that cattle people use--all the way from giant feed trucks to animal health products--were exhibited. Even paintings and jewelry were on display. The show was opened Sunday night with a get-together sponsored by the Port City Stockyards Company.

For entertainment there was a western dance Monday night and then the Cattlemen's Ball Tuesday night with additional entertainment for the ladies on Tuesday.

NEW OFFICERS NAMED

The new president is J. A. Whittenburg III of Amarillo who is succeeding Hilmar Moore of Richmond who served so ably the past two years. John B. Armstrong of Kingsville moved up to first vice-president. The new second vice-president is John S. Cargile of San Antonio.

Secretary Don King praised the Association's inspectors for their work in theft cases involving cattle and equipment of members. He stated that there are 14,057 members in the Association. About a thousand of them were at the convention.

Next year the Association will be 100 years old, and the convention will be in Fort Worth, which has been the headquarters most of the time since the Association was first organized in Graham, Texas in 1877. In 1978 the convention will be held in San Antonio. -Reported by G. C. Duncan.

Wintermann Discusses Rice At Rotary Meet

David Wintermann was the speaker at the meeting of the Eagle Lake Rotary Club on Wednesday of last week and he reviewed the rice situation as it affects the local economy.

He pointed out that large surpluses of rice carried over from 1975 crop and a new rice program have put a dim light on the rice situation for 1976.

Wintermann noted that production of 5500 pounds of rice per acre (an average for this area) will require a price of $6.25 per hundredweight for the producer to break even on the costs of production.

Under the new legislation the loan value is $6.00 per cwt. but the program sets up a target price support based on average sales of rice. He noted that at $8.00 per Cwt. the farmer can "get by, but it won't be the easy time that has been seen in the years past."

Wintermann stated that approximately 334,000 cwt. of 1975 rice handled by the Eagle Lake American Rice Growers Association office went into the government loan program because of the low market prices created by surpluses of rice.

The speaker noted further that membership on the National Rice Advisory Committee has placed the farmer in the minority and as a result the farmer's voice in future legislation will be weakened.

Eagle Lake Rotary Club is making plans to host at least four couples from England for one week under an exchange program developed by the local Rotary District under its international program. Further plans will be announced on this in the future.

The conference will also feature production short courses dealing with beef cattle, dairying, swine, horses, pastures and forage, and range and wildlife.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear father, Jessie Riggins, who passed away March 26, 1973, at 11:15 a.m. Three years ago we lost someone who had suffered so hard and so long, but when the bells rang for him we were not ready but we had to stand the test. Sometimes it seems as if it were today. Most have forgotten; but you have six children who will never forget.

But we thank God for lending him to us until his last child was on her own.

Prairie Chicken Refuge Is YCC Camp Site

One of the youth employment programs slated this summer in Texas is the Youth Conservation Corps program. The YCC, funded by the U. S. Departments of Agriculture and Interior, is a work and environmental education program for both male and female youth from all economic sectors of society.

As stated in a previous news bulletin, the Attwater Prairie Chicken National Wildlife Refuge (eight miles northeast of Eagle Lake) has been selected as a YCC camp site for the period of June 7 through July 30, 1976. It will be a non-residential, coeducational camp, and enrollment has recently been increased to 40 enrollees. Each enrollee participating throughout the eight week course will receive $528.00.

Applicants must have attained age 15 by June 1, 1976, and not be 19 before August 31, 1976; be permanent residents of the United States, its territories, or possessions; have a desire to work in the outdoors and become involved in the development and maintenance of the Nation's natural environment; have no history of serious criminal or other antisocial behavior that might jeopardize their safety or that of others; be physically qualified to participate fully in various work and training projects of the YCC camp program; have or be able to obtain parental or legal guardian consent to enroll in the program; and have a social security number prior to entrance into the program.

Youth interested and eligible should complete an application form available through the Texas Employment Commission Office, 1629 7th Street, Bay City, Texas 77414, or the local high school counselor. (You don't have to be attending high school to participate.) Application forms should be completed and returned to reach the Texas Employment Com. office no later than April 16.

Final screening and selection of referrals will be done by late April or early May. Each applicant will be notified by letter of the selection results. Anyone not notified of such results by May 14 can assume that he/she has not been selected and should proceed with other plans for the summer. Interested youths should realize that a limited number of positions is provided in YCC and that if the number of applicants should greatly exceed the available positions, then many youth cannot be selected. It is anticipated that in the next year or two, the overall program will expand to allow more participants.

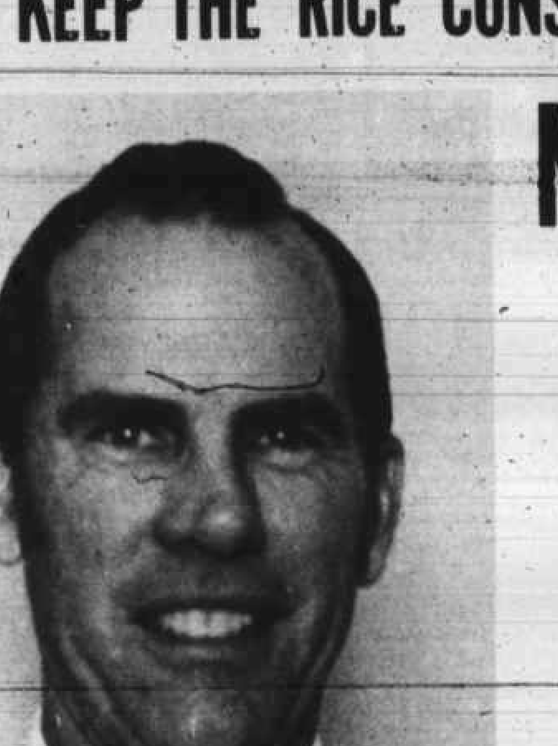
HAPPY BIRTHDAY CHARLIE!

KEEP THE RICE CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL DISTRICT



MOVING FORWARD..

RE-ELECT

ARTHUR ANDERSON

to

Eagle Lake Position 1

SATURDAY, APRIL 3

The Rice Consolidated Independent School District is moving in the right direction. The major factor responsible for this progress is a Board of Education that functions harmoniously and continually places student benefits at the top of its priority list.

The three years Arthur Anderson has served on this Board are a major reason this condition exists. His tenure on the Board, along with his other strong qualifications, makes him the most qualified candidate for Position No. 1 on the Board of Education. Arthur has demonstrated that he can very ably represent the taxpayer in making the complex decisions the Board must reach regularly. His lifetime residence in Eagle Lake and Rice Consolidated Independent School District, his stability and success in his personal occupation, and his strong involvement in the civic affairs of our community attest to his strong qualifications to continue as a member of the Board of Education of the Rice Consolidated Independent School District.

ARTHUR ANDERSON'S STAND ON THE FOLLOWING ISSUES HAS EARNED THE SUPPORT OF THE UNDERSIGNED IN HIS CANDIDACY FOR RE-ELECTION:

1. Allocation and spending of tax monies is one of the most critical issues facing Boards of Education today. Education dollars must provide a justifiable return in education benefits and must not be spent to pacify pressure groups who are demanding tax dollars.

2. Citizens of the District want teachers that are truly professional. Rice Consolidated has its strength in a staff that exemplifies this trait. Professional teachers earn their professionalism through dedication and hard work in the classroom.

3. Progress is achieved in large organizations through harmony and co-operation. Board members must be able to disagree without being disagreeable. No board can function effectively if individual members are motivated by anything other than a sincere interest to serve in the best interest of students and taxpayers.

The undersigned endorse Arthur Anderson's candidacy for re-election to Position 1 on the Rice CISD Board of Education. Your support and vote for Arthur Anderson on April 3rd is solicited and will insure a sound education for our students.
