Terese Gold Named CYO Deanery Queen

Terese Gold of Nada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gold of Nada, was named El Campo CYO Deanery Queen at the annual Sweetheart Ball held in El Campo on March 18th at 7:00 p.m. Terese is a sophomore at Rice High School, where she is an officer of the FHA and an honor roll student.

Terese competed against girls from Edna, El Campo, and Taiton for the title of CYO Queen. The girls were judged on talent, answering of questions, and a theme written by each girl entitled "What Christianity Means to Me." For her talent, Terese chose a piano selection, "Let There Be Peace."

Terese is now eligible for the Archdiocese Queen Competition which will be held in San Antonio.

All of the afternoon's exhibits and activities will be free. A few of those events are historical displays, cooking and sewing exhibits, a style show of American dress, and contests such as sack races, potato relays, log-sawing, and pie eating. Later in the evening there will be a softball game between the East Bernard athletic faculty and the East Bernard firemen. The National Honor Society will serve a fried chicken supper - tickets to be sold in advance. The evening will be concluded by an old-fashioned promotion day program, featuring elementary school students, and an exciting "Grand Finale".
