Fred Vornsand
Assisted Sheriff
In Quick Arrest

In the story appearing in this paper last week on the arrest of three men for theft of services at a Texaco Station in Columbus, the name of Weimar, Chief of Police, Fred Vornsand was omitted as assisting in the arrest along with Sheriff. Geo. (Doc) Mueller. Chief Deputy Sheriff Jim Broussard, who released information on the case to the press, made this statement this week:

"I would like to take this opportunity to make a correction in one of last week's news items. I reported to the press that Sheriff Mueller had arrested three subjects wanted for failure to pay for items purchased at the Texaco Station near Columbus. "I was not aware that Fred Vornsand, Chief of Police in Weimar, had parked his patrol car and was with Sheriff Mueller when the arrest took place. I did not talk to Sheriff Mueller prior to releasing the story and it was entirely my fault. "I apologized to Mr. Vornsand privately and I now apologize in public for failing to mention his name in the news item."
