The RAIDER REVIEW is published by the journalism classes of Rice High School, and the opinions reflected are of the students and not the administration, or the Eagle Lake Headlight, unless so stated.

HECE Class is a Success

(By Debra Newsum)
One of the new classes offered at Rice this year is Home Economics Cooperative Education. It is a program of training in school along with on-the-job training. Students are in school half a day and work half a day.

HECE classroom instruction consists of group study in such areas as job applications and interview management of time and energy, how to be a success in the world of work, money management, and career orientation.

Each student also has individualized instruction in their particular area of work. These students involved in the program are Frances Banks, employed as housekeeping management assistant at the home of Mrs. Dennis DeLaughter and Mrs. Ernest Uzzell, Jr.; Arnold Cardenas, housekeeping management assistant at Eagle Market; Mary Lou Coronado, housekeeping management assistant in the home of Mrs. James Clippson, Jr.; and Andrew Hewitt, food services employee at Dairy Queen.

Also involved in the program are Estella Hewitt, food service employee at Jack's Restaurant; Frankie Hewitt, companion to the elderly at the Heritage

House; Charles Supak, consumer aide at Spalinger Hardware store; and Brenda Toliver, food services employee at Dairy Queen.

There are ten girls in this hard working class, coordinating these flower designs. They are Gretchen Gold, Teresa Gold, Eliza Kester, Betty Labay, Maria Loooy, Berna Morales, Jill Morrow, Jo Ann Shimek, Cynthia Tomcheson and Vivian Yanes. After these students finished their work, it was presented before five judges on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 16. The judges were Mrs. Sandra Berge, Mrs. Irene Hagendorf, Mrs. Irene Mader, Mrs. Elaine Rice and Mrs. Dorothy White.

The winners were all ten of the students. They were all presented with a ribbon on their design; on this ribbon was written "Homemaking Department Merit Award". Mrs. Diana Wunderlich says that any boy interested in this sort of class may also sign up.

FTA Organizes For New Year

(By Leland Hagendorf)
On September 22, 1976, the Future Teachers of America chapter held its first meeting. President Sherry Fajkus presided over the meeting and discussed with the club what project to sponsor at the Garwood Fair. Also the Program, Hospitality, Publicity, Membership, Activity and Budget Committees were organized. Then the club discussed what to do for American Education Week which is November 14-20.

This year's club has a total membership of seventy, an increase of twenty-six from last year and the largest FTA club ever at Rice. The club is already making plans to attend several conventions and participate in projects throughout the year.

SC Bake Sale Was Profitable

(By Judy Spates)
Saturday, September 18, 1976, in front of the Rice Drug Store, the Student Council sponsored a bake sale. President Brenda Kallina and other Student Council members helped to carry out the first bake sale of the year. The sale consisted of all homemade pastries which looked very appetizing. Joseph Wendel says, the council is expected to make a profit of $180. And also the council would like to thank all the citizens who patronized them by buying these pastries.

OEK Officers Elect Historian

(By Judy Spates)
Mrs. Marjorie Crabb called all OEA officers together on September 9th to elect a historian for the 1976-77 year for the club. President Debra Cooper told the officers that Eliza Kester and Brenda Kornek both would like to be historian and therefore they must choose from the two the historian for the year. After discussing the matter the officers decided to elect both of them to take on the duty by themselves. The meeting was then adjourned by the president.

Later in the week Mrs. Crabb was informed that Jeri Lloyd, one of the OEA members, had had an appendectomy. The best of wishes is extended to Jeri from the OEA members.

Cap and Gown Orders Taken

(By Debra Newsum)
On September 18th orders were taken from 181 seniors for caps and gowns. Principal Fred Gramham came to the various government classes throughout the day to take down the sizes of the students eligible for graduation.

Wiener Roast

(By Debra Newsum)
Sixty Future Homemakers members of the senior and freshman chapters stayed after school to have a wiener roast. At the gathering, several games were played and prizes were awarded to the winners. After the games the members roasted wieners over a fire and ate. The purpose of this wiener roast was for the senior chapter of the FHA to get acquainted with the freshman chapter.

Sponsors of the homemaking department at Rice also attended. They are Mrs. Diana Wunderlich, Mrs. Dorothy White and Mrs. Joyce Devison.

Tommy Balusek Loves Rodeos

(By Judy Spates)
Tommy Balusek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Balusek of Garwood, is a junior at Rice. Tommy is well known in sports at school, but there is a sport that he loves very much and which is more dangerous than any sport at Rice. Do you know what this sport is? It is Rodeo.

A lot of boys are put down because they do not participate in sports activities at school. They are often told by others, "You're not man enough," but you can see, Tommy has accomplished a lot by sticking to what he can do best. Many times a person will strive to overcome something, but he can't; but Tommy knew he was best at rodeo, so that is what he took up.

Tommy has been participating in rodeos for a long time and has obtained a lot of prizes, ribbons and awards. He has won the Junior Ribbon Roping, Junior All-Around Cowboy, Junior Figure 8 Barrels, Junior High Point Award for 1972, Champion Junior Breakaway, Calhoun County Youth Rodeo in Port Lavaca, qualified for Team Roping in the State Championship Rodeo that was held in Hallettsville, and he also competed in the 1976 Final National High School Championship Rodeo held at A. J. West Memorial Arena in Sulphur, Louisiana, where he placed tenth.

Tommy intends to continue his hard work in rodeo and hopes his years ahead to be just as successful as the past ones.

Senior Survey Is Important

(By Judy Spates)
Guy Beane and William Carpenter have been surveying all the senior students to see if they have all their requirements and credits for graduation. In this survey the counselors had each student to fill out a survey sheet which consisted of information about the ACT and SAT testing dates and deadlines, an inquiry of post graduation plans, and to also find out if the student is also meeting all the state requirements along with the school requirements. After this form was filled out, each senior was given his transcript to see if there were any corrections that needed to be made. At the end of this survey the counselors told each student that if there was any information they needed to know, they could get in touch with them in their office.

Jewish New Year Overdue Books Is Now Over Cost Money

(By Mark Hoover)
On September 19, Yom Kippur, which is the last of the ten penitential days which mark the beginning of the Jewish New Year, was celebrated.

This holiday, which is also called the Day of Atonement, is observed on the tenth day of the month of Tishri. No other Jewish fast day or feast day is observed so generally or with such devotion. According to Biblical tradition the day was set apart by Moses. This day was celebrated regularly until the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem in 70 A.D.

In modern times the day is celebrated by services in the synagogues beginning in the evening of the preceding day and continuing until the evening of the day itself. Commenting on this day of prayer and fasting, a writer in the "Jewish Encyclopedia" states that no Jew, unless he has cut himself entirely loose from the synagogue, will fail to observe the Day of Atonement.

Not just freshmen forget about turning in their books because the overdue library book list has its share of sophomores, juniors and seniors who have also not turned in their books. So turn in your books at the right time, it will save you a little money!
