The bridegroom's table, covered with white cloth and set with white ribbons, held the groom's cake of German chocolate with a simulated maize field and tractor, also a large gold centerpiece and autumn print crystal candle. Misses Michelle Lahay, Sheri Culver, Elaine Popp and Margaret Lohr served the groom's cake.

A supper of barbecued beef and the trimmings was served. The dance featured the Westbeats with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gold of Garwood leading the Grand March.

For their wedding trip to West Texas and San Antonio, the bride wore a two-piece skirt and wrap top of moss green with matching scarf. She wore a corsage of pink and white sweethearts roses and baby's breath. The couple will reside at 807 Corn St. in El Campo.

The bride, a graduate of Rice High School and Wharton County Junior College School of Dental Hygiene, is a licensed Dental Hygienist, employed by G.J. Whorton, D.D.S., in El Campo.

The bridegroom, a graduate of El Campo High School, Wharton County Junior College and Texas A&M University with a B.S. in Agriculture Education, is employed in farming.

Rehearsal Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Leopold and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schoenfeld hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Nada Parish Hall. A meal of fried chicken, French fries, salad and iced tea was served to the forty guests.

At this time, the bride and groom presented gifts to the attendants.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of white organza with appliqued Venice lace, a V-neck, long full sleeves and empire waist. The V-neck, cuffs and cathedral train were appliqued with white seed pearls. Her Juliet cap was accented with white seed pearls and held a long cathedral length veil.

The bride carried a cascade of pink and white sweethearts roses, pink carnations, baby's breath, entwined with greenery and white satin ribbon.

Bride's Attendants
Maid of honor was Miss Janice Kornek of El Campo. Bridesmaids were Misses Karen and Donna Schoenfeld, Barbara and Mary Leopold, and Ruthie Popp.

The attendants wore formal length gowns of wine chiffon over crepe. The V-neck was accented with a red rose from the bride.

The reception was held at the Nada K.J.T. Hall. The registration table, covered with white cloth and accented with white ribbon, held the bride's Book, white plume feather pen, and a basket of rice bags tied with white tapers. Anisting guests in registering was Miss Monica Bubela of Nada.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with net accented with wine ribbon and white flower clusters. The table held two single candelabras with white tapers, a stand for the bride's bouquet, a silver wine chiller and champagne glasses. The bride and groom presented a toast to each other. The table held the bride's cake with an off-white background and wine roses. The bottom and top tiers were separated by tall pillars. Two love birds were placed between the pillars. The cake was served by Misses Cheryl

Lingerie Shower For Miss New At Rec. Center

The Eagle Lake Recreation Center Clubhouse was the setting for a Lingerie Shower honoring Miss Gail New, future bride of Darrell Gertson. Thursday evening, October 28, hostesses for the occasion were the bridesmaids chosen by the bride-elect for her wedding on November 6th, Nova Parvin, Vivian Toller, Becky Gertson, and Connie Gertson.

Miss New received a corsage made from a piece of yellow lingerie and accented with green ribbons.

Marking the registry table were the bride's cake, a dried arrangement with yellow, orange and white gingham checked daisies in a pitcher vase trimmed with yellow and orange ribbon, and a miniature wedding party figurines.

The guests enjoyed making rice bags of yellow tulle, green ribbon and green-dyed rice while visiting and viewing the lovely gifts of lingerie the honoree received. The hostesses presented her a dainty dark brown gown and negligee set with cream lace accents for her trousseau.

Refreshments of lemon squares, a variety of cookies, chips, dip and evergreen punch were enjoyed. The serving table, covered with an imported damask cloth, held a yellow rose arrangement in a crystal dish on a silver stand and matching candelabras with tall yellow tapers.

Among the guests were Mrs. Alton New of Lissie and Mrs. Ralph Gertson of Eagle Lake, mothers of the bride and groom, and also Mrs. W. F. McInnis, Jr., grandmother of the groom-elect.

Guests departed wishing Miss New the best of luck in her new life as a wife.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Leopold of Bay City and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Mathis, also of Bay City.

Soloist Emily Bryant sang "The Lord's Prayer," "We've Only Just Begun," "The Wedding Song," accompanied by Mrs. Susan Bowles.

The church was beautifully decorated with two standing baskets of all white gladioli, carnations and gypsophila. The main altar was also enhanced with familiar bouquets. The bride entered in white with a white veil, escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of light blue green chiffon with an attached cape. She chose silver accessories and a corsage of white carnations as accents.

A reception was held in the Lutheran Fellowship Hall following the wedding.

Serving in the house party were Carolyn Sytek, Cecilia Shearer, Kim Kainer, Paula Richardson and Mrs. Barney Griffith. Lawanda Smith was at the guest book.

The bride's table was draped with white lace cloth centered with a silver platter which held the bride's bouquet. The three-tiered wedding cake was enhanced with sugar bells in columns and silver forget-me-not flowers. A silver punch bowl completed the table decoration.
