Raider Review

Editor: JUDY SPATES
Reporters: BARBARA BAKER, DEBRA NEWSOM
Sponsor: JACK GRAMMER

The RAIDER REVIEW is published by the Journalism classes of Rice High School, and the opinions reflected are of the students and not the administration, or the Eagle Lake Headlight, unless so stated.

always remember it." When asked what was most exciting about the trip Alan stated, "It was really exciting when I was recommended to participate in 'All Student Groups, U.S.A.', a European concert tour to be held from July 1 through July 22 of next year. Mr. Roger Heath, Associate Director of this tour and also the director of the National FFA Band, recommended me to take this tour throughout Europe in July. Over 2000 students audition each year, but I do not have to audition because I am automatically a member of this all student group, being a member of the National Band, 1976. We will play a number of European theaters. This privilege is really a great honor."

Students Aren't Writing Letters
(By Mark Hoover)
Both classes are still helping the Heritage House fold Reader's Digests to make Mr. and Mrs. Santos, along with their other jobs they have to perform in order to get their daily grades which are part of the grade that is put on their report cards. The VOE has two new projects they have begun and one is the printing of the girl's and boy's basketball tournament programs that are selling for fifteen cents. The profit from these programs will be placed in the OBA (Office Education Association) treasury. The other project is the making of the FFA yearbook. So you can see, along with the VOE daily work, the students are still working constantly to produce more work.

Students Are Informed On Birth Defects
(By Judy Spates)
On November 22, first period in the homeroom department, pictures were taken of those students who participated in the skit that will be presented to the student body on November 28. Patricia Eggemeyer and Regina Hemphill will be performing the skit on birth defects, which will be tied in with the FFA. Mary Dimes, Judy Ryckhoff from Bryan, who is a volunteer worker, will present the program and answer any questions. The program will be presented in two sessions with one session consisting of the freshmen and sophomores and another with the juniors and seniors. There will be two films shown to the class. They are "Inside My Mother" and "Tomorrow Happens Today". These films will be shown to make young people aware of the responsibility for giving future children a healthy start in life. It explores potential damage which can be caused by V.D., drugs and poor nutrition. It also challenges the future to protect the environment in which life begins. Also, after the sessions are over pamphlets will be given to any students that are interested.

Love America, Don't Shame Her
(By Mark Hoover)
Some people say the National Anthem should not be "Star Spangled Banner", but another like "America", because, they say the "Star Spangled Banner" is about a war. That's not all it's about. It's also about America's indomitable spirit shining through even during the roughest of times. You can, of course, look at it any way you want to. America is a free country; you can believe, say, do what you want as long as you don't infringe on the rights of others. So if you practice these beliefs to do, say, think what you want, it won't hurt you to show a little respect to a "your" country's flag. It's just like the bumper sticker says, "America: Love It or Leave It!"

Who's Zat?
(By Judy Spates)
Another week, another picture. Let me first tell you about this person and then see if you can guess who it is. She works at Rice and she is a very handy person to the school. While she strives to do her work, she is helpful both to the principal as well as to the students. She has been seen by every student at Rice and probably has spoken at least once to three-fourths of the student body. Well, Mr. Wendel thought it was Mrs. Betty Krenke and Mr. Roberts said it was Mrs. Irene Mader, but they both were wrong. Later, Mrs. Henrietta Baumgarten said it was Mrs. Hazel Tomchesson, but she was wrong too. Now don't get disgusted because there were two people that guessed right and they were Mrs. Betty Krenke and Mrs. Martha Polach, because they said it was Mrs. Carol Ripper.

BE THANKFUL
(By Mark Hoover)
Butterball turkeys, ducks, chickens, doves, deer, roasts, hams, mashed potatoes, corn on the cob, baked bread, cranberry sauce, gravy, and mince-meat pie will be served on millions of tables across America on Thanksgiving Day. Thanksgiving is a day of worship, a day of thanks, and a day on which you can eat until you burst. What do you have to be thankful for? You have clothes on your back, food on the table, a chance to get a decent education, and your family who cares for you more than you will ever realize. But most of all, not only be thankful that you have these things, but that you are alive, that's what counts and there is only one thing you can thank for all you have. That being is the Lord our God. Thank Him for what you have because when you die, He will never give you another chance to live on His earth again.

English Teacher Mrs. Gohlke Serves On Jury
(By Judy Spates)
Mrs. Lillian Gohlke, who is a junior and senior English teacher, has returned to her regular duties. Mrs. Gohlke served as a juror for the Federal Court Jury in Houston. She now informs us in the following section of her experience as a juror and her ability to observe those people that were put under great stress. "Being selected as a juror for the Federal Court Jury in Houston was my first experience in a civil trial. It must have been 'luck' if you wish to call it that since I was selected from among 300 registered voters present at that time. Sixteen jurors were chosen from 48 random choices. I rarely win a prize in a raffle, yet at this particular time, I was one of the sixteen jurors selected to serve on the first docket of court cases for the month of November held in the Federal Court building in downtown Houston. "After six days of testimony, the trial of a car accident, sheriff's deputies and others accused in a $1 million damage suit of conspiracy and negligence in the shooting death of a Department of Public Safety officer came to an end. I have watched lawyer shows on television, but actually being present in a court room was an experience in itself. These lawyers have hours of

Soph. Class Holds Concession Stand
(By Judy Spates)
While the girls' and boys' tournament is in session the sophomore class will be selling food and drinks to raise money for their prom. They will be giving the seniors. The eight sponsors that will be working along with these students are Mrs. Marjorie Crab, Jerry Havsky, Jack Grammer, Troy Krenke, Mrs. Elaine Rice, Glenn Wallace, Mrs. Dorothy White and Reuben Wunderlich. The food that will be sold in the concession stand will be homemade.

Responsible Drinking!!
Responsible drinking is the use of alcohol in ways which harm neither the individual or society, notes the Fort Bend Alcoholism Services Inc., serving Colorado County: (713) 342-8828 Richmond or 782-2339 Columbus. Guidelines for responsible drinking are listed by the services as:
1. Make sure that the use of alcohol improves social relationships, rather than harming them.
2. Make sure the use of alcohol is a "plus" to an activity rather than being the primary focus.
3. Make sure alcohol is used carefully in connection with other drugs.
4. Make sure human dignity is served by the use of alcohol.
