

Gifts FOR THE FAMILY

introducing the new Un-Candle™ Collection of floating candles by Corning.

They'll make everyone on your gift-giving list light up!

Now there's a Un-Candle for every taste and every budget. Inexpensive, intriguing new ways of adding a glittering glow to gift giving and evening entertaining.

With Un-Candles, you get all the beauty of candlelight without the bother or expense of candles. And you get compliments for your clever choice of gifts and your creativity as a gifted hostess.

No matter which Un-Candle you choose—the ever popular Un-Candle Sticks, or the new Churney Flick, Candelabra or Lighthouse—nothing holds a candle to the Un-Candle Collection by Corning.

Many, many gift selections

at

SPALINGER

HARDWARE

EAGLE LAKE. PHONE 234-2566

ROCK ISLAND NEWS

MRS. M. L. NICEWANDER

New Grandson For DeFoor's

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. DeFoor were in Houston this past week to get acquainted with their new grandson, little Jeremy Alan Brandt, who arrived at Hermann Hospital in Houston on December 7th. He weighed in at seven pounds and six ounces. This is the first child for Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brandt. The happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. S. A. DeFoor and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Brandt, who reside near Conway, Ark.

Candlelight Service

The Rock Island Methodist congregation enjoyed their annual candlelight service on Friday evening at the Methodist Church. Following the service a social hour including delicious refreshments was enjoyed. Each one present received a gift from under a pretty decorated Christmas tree. Several guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas DeFoor from Lawton, Mo. have been recent guests here with their brother and family, the S. A. DeFoor's.

Mrs. W. M. Pyle of Brava was a visitor here Friday with her sister, Mrs. Elmer Larsen, and Mr. Larsen.

First Baptist Program Sun.

The First Baptist Church announces their Christmas Program at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 19th. They extend an invitation to everyone to come be with them at that hour.

To Order Rubber Stamps

Call 234-2783

Season's Greetings from THE BARGAIN BOX

408 N. Lake Eagle Lake, Texas

For that Someone Special:

I have an exclusive line of AFTER-FIVE Fragrances for Men and Women; Perfumes, Powders and Cologne by AUVERGNE.

New Fashion Jewelry

Featuring Rings, Bracelets, Watches, Earrings, Necklaces, and other items along that line.

I also carry a full line of clothing, for everyone in the family, household items, and many other things on consignment.

Stop by, you are always Welcome.

Open 9 AM until 7 PM Mon. thru Sat.

Miss Sarah Love Volker Becomes Bride of Dennis Clay Burdette

Miss Sarah Love Volker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Volker of Norman, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Clayton Burdette of Morgan's Point Resort City, Tex., were united in marriage at the Wesley Foundation Chapel, Norman, Okla., Saturday, December 4th.

The Rev. Cornelius McNally officiated at the last rites. Entombment was in the Galveston Memorial Park Mausoleum in Hitchcock under the direction of Malloy & Son Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Lewis Kopecky, Jr. of La Porte, Jerry Gibson of Alvin, Julius Albionetti of Galveston, Raymond Jenemann of La Marque, John T. Baker of Victoria, George Cason of Friendswood, Frank Kampe of Houston and Robert Nuss of Hitchcock. Honorary palbearers were Dr. Lewis Kopecky of Eagle Lake, John H. Baker of La Marque, S. P. Perich of Galveston and Tony Trapani of Galveston.

Surviving are her husband, John W. Kearney of Galveston, a retired Santa Fe executive; a daughter, Mrs. E. V. Yennie of Alexandria, Va.; a grandson, John V. Yennie of Columbia, S. C.; three granddaughters, Mrs. Donald Weidner, Lois Gene Yennie and Mary Jo Yennie of Tallahassee, Florida; a great-granddaughter, Kristin Weidner; three brothers, Albert Kampe of Houston, William Kampe of Fullerton, Calif. and Heiman Kampe of Galveston; and other relatives and a host of friends.

The family requested that memorials be sent to the Galveston School children's library or to a favorite charity. Among those attending the services from Eagle Lake were Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Stephens, Jr. and Mrs. Lewis Kopecky, and Mrs. George Cason.

During the time of residence here the Kearneys were prominent in civic, church and school activities. Through her writings in the Headlight, Mrs. Kearney endeavored herself to citizens of all races, creeds and color. Her contributions to the Headlight are recorded in this paper and she shall be remembered for her accuracy and dedication.

In 1975 nuclear power plants in the United States produced about 170 billion net kilowatt hours, or almost 9 percent of the electricity generated nationwide.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table featured a three-tiered wedding cake topped with fresh flowers.

Mrs. Jim P. Artman attended guests at the door. Assisting at the reception were Miss Renee Frazell and Miss Ginger Tye. Miss Damiola.

Mrs. Virginia Stalling, city Mrs. Tillie Drzymala, city Mrs. Katie Key, city Dr. Raymond Thomas, city Mrs. Lizzie Westmoreland, city Mrs. Frances Gonzales, city Mrs. Arlene Norris, city Mrs. Mary Ann Tye, city Miss Lizette Walker, Alfair Mrs. Mary Cisneros, Mid-south City Stanley Jewick, industry Mrs. Ethel Potter, Sheridan Mrs. Beverly High and baby boy, Sheridan

Practice holiday food safety, and help your family and friends enjoy a happy, healthy Christmas season.

Mark Causey Gets Degree At Texas A&M

Mark E. Causey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Causey, Jr. of Houston, received a degree in Architecture from Texas A&M University Saturday, December 11. His parents attended the ceremonies.

Mark is the grandson of Mrs. Grace Towell and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Causey of this city.

SISTER STELLA INDIAN HEALER, READER AND ADVISOR

DON'T FAIL TO SEE HER TODAY—Other Readers Come to Sister Stella for Advice—715 MAIN ST. HWY. 90A

PHONE 234-2946 EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS BOX 563

Open 7 A.M. to 10 P.M. Every Day, Inc. Sundays

DRIVE A LITTLE WAY—SEE HOW IT PAYS All Readings Private and strictly confidential to my home

Mrs. Kearney Was Headlight Editor Here

Last rites were held at 9:30 a.m. last Thursday, Dec. 9th at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church in Galveston for Mrs. John W. (Ottillia) Kearney, 71, who died at 2:13 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 7th in the John Sealy Hospital after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Kearney was editor of the Eagle Lake Headlight for over a decade in the late 1950s and early 1960s.

The Rev. Cornelius McNally officiated at the last rites. Entombment was in the Galveston Memorial Park Mausoleum in Hitchcock under the direction of Malloy & Son Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Lewis Kopecky, Jr. of La Porte, Jerry Gibson of Alvin, Julius Albionetti of Galveston, Raymond Jenemann of La Marque, John T. Baker of Victoria, George Cason of Friendswood, Frank Kampe of Houston and Robert Nuss of Hitchcock. Honorary palbearers were Dr. Lewis Kopecky of Eagle Lake, John H. Baker of La Marque, S. P. Perich of Galveston and Tony Trapani of Galveston.

Surviving are her husband, John W. Kearney of Galveston, a retired Santa Fe executive; a daughter, Mrs. E. V. Yennie of Alexandria, Va.; a grandson, John V. Yennie of Columbia, S. C.; three granddaughters, Mrs. Donald Weidner, Lois Gene Yennie and Mary Jo Yennie of Tallahassee, Florida; a great-granddaughter, Kristin Weidner; three brothers, Albert Kampe of Houston, William Kampe of Fullerton, Calif. and Heiman Kampe of Galveston; and other relatives and a host of friends.

The family requested that memorials be sent to the Galveston School children's library or to a favorite charity. Among those attending the services from Eagle Lake were Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Stephens, Jr. and Mrs. Lewis Kopecky, and Mrs. George Cason.

During the time of residence here the Kearneys were prominent in civic, church and school activities. Through her writings in the Headlight, Mrs. Kearney endeavored herself to citizens of all races, creeds and color. Her contributions to the Headlight are recorded in this paper and she shall be remembered for her accuracy and dedication.

In 1975 nuclear power plants in the United States produced about 170 billion net kilowatt hours, or almost 9 percent of the electricity generated nationwide.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table featured a three-tiered wedding cake topped with fresh flowers.

Mrs. Jim P. Artman attended guests at the door. Assisting at the reception were Miss Renee Frazell and Miss Ginger Tye. Miss Damiola.

Mrs. Virginia Stalling, city Mrs. Tillie Drzymala, city Mrs. Katie Key, city Dr. Raymond Thomas, city Mrs. Lizzie Westmoreland, city Mrs. Frances Gonzales, city Mrs. Arlene Norris, city Mrs. Mary Ann Tye, city Miss Lizette Walker, Alfair Mrs. Mary Cisneros, Mid-south City Stanley Jewick, industry Mrs. Ethel Potter, Sheridan Mrs. Beverly High and baby boy, Sheridan

Practice holiday food safety, and help your family and friends enjoy a happy, healthy Christmas season.

Mark Causey Gets Degree At Texas A&M

Mark E. Causey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Causey, Jr. of Houston, received a degree in Architecture from Texas A&M University Saturday, December 11. His parents attended the ceremonies.

Mark is the grandson of Mrs. Grace Towell and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Causey of this city.

SISTER STELLA INDIAN HEALER, READER AND ADVISOR

DON'T FAIL TO SEE HER TODAY—Other Readers Come to Sister Stella for Advice—715 MAIN ST. HWY. 90A

PHONE 234-2946 EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS BOX 563

Open 7 A.M. to 10 P.M. Every Day, Inc. Sundays

DRIVE A LITTLE WAY—SEE HOW IT PAYS All Readings Private and strictly confidential to my home

Gifts SURE TO PLEASE

Wood and Leather. Natural Together These handbags are made of the finest genuine leather. Natural scratches and animal wrinkles are authentic features of Natural Grain

Colors: Clay, Chestnut and Almond

FREE GIFT WRAP

DUNCAN & SON

"A FRIENDLY STORE IN A FRIENDLY COMMUNITY"

Concord, Mass. and Douglas D. Swearingen of Ruston, La., and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren: one sister and one brother, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. Swearingen was a longtime member of the First Baptist Church in the community.

Friends in the community learned with sadness of the death of Henry D. Swearingen in Ruston, La., at 10:30 p.m. last Thursday, Dec. 9th. Mr. Swearingen resided in the Army when he was in the United States Army.

He was a retired employee of Southern Pacific Railroad and a retired farmer. Last rites were conducted from the chapel of the Mill-Bauer Funeral Home at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 11th with the Rev. Melburn Silbey, pastor of First Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in the Masonic Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Charles Spalinger, Paul Powers, Robert Griffith, Frank Davidson, J. K. Davidson and Dale Cassidy.

Henry Delouis Swearingen was born Nov. 25, 1888 in Kenney, Texas. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Swearingen. Mrs. Swearingen preceded him in death May 1, 1973. A daughter, Anna Lee Swearingen also preceded him in death July 3, 1971.

Surviving are two sons, Lawson L. Swearingen of Rendering Sacred Service with Your Power of Reason is the theme of this convention sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, world headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses.

In a newsletter dated December, 1976 sent to all congregations, the Watchtower Society reported there are now 7,375 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in the United States, divided into 334 circuits and 53 districts.

Headlight Classifieds really pay off. Call 234-2783.

CELEBRATE THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS BETTER BY ENJOYING OUR CHOICE MEATS!

THE SMOKE HOUSE

EAST BERNARD, TEXAS

Special good for Thurs., Dec. 16 thru Wed., Dec. 22

Smoke House Hickory Smoked (Bone-In) 15-18 Lb. Avg. L.B. $1.29

Butt End - - - $1.29 Lb. Shank End - - - $1.19 Lb.

Smoke House Hickory Smoked (Fully Cooked) 10-12 Lb. Avg. L.B. $1.49

Smoke House Hickory Smoked (Five Varieties) Sausage (10 Lbs. or more) L.B. $1.29

Smoke House Hickory Smoked—Picnic Hams (Sliced FREE) L.B. 83c

Smoke House Hickory Smoked (Fully Cooked) L.B. 99c

Smoke House Smoked Pork Chops L.B. $1.89

Smoke House Smoked Pork Ribs L.B. 99c

U.S.D.A. Good - Blade Cut L.B. 79c

U.S.D.A. Good - Seven Cut L.B. 83c

U.S.D.A. Good - Small Bone L.B. $1.09

U.S.D.A. Good L.B. 69c

U.S.D.A. Good Trimmed L.B. $1.09

We also do deer processing. We have plenty of lockers for rent.

Jef & The Kickers

- Thurs., Dec. 16: Pyramid Club, Wharton
- Fri., Dec. 17: Boca Pavilion, Fayetteville
- Sat., Dec. 18: El Campo KC Hall
- Sun., Dec. 19: Pyramid Club with Triumphs
- Mon., Dec. 20: Brazosport College, 9 to 1

"New Year's Eve Dance"

Fl. Bend County Fairgrounds, Rosenberg

Tea Shower Compliments Teresa Spanihel

Miss Teresa Marie Spanihel, bride elect of Frank Joseph Briscoe, was honored with a Tea Shower Saturday, December 11 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Raymond Lee Koblhoff.

Upon arriving, the honoree; her mother, Mrs. Leon J. Spanihel; and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. Monroe Briscoe, were presented with lovely white chrysanthemum corsages tied with red and white ribbon.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by the future bride, mothers of the engaged couple and the hostess.

The dining room table was covered with a beautiful sheer white cloth and centered with a Christmas arrangement of poinsettias.

Refreshments of prune cake, tea sandwiches, assorted Christmas cookies, minis, nuts, coffee and spiced tea were served by the bride's sisters, Mrs. Edward Swearingen and Miss Mary Jo Spanihel; and the bride's aunts, Mrs. Draper Stephens and Miss Grace Spanihel of Houston. Silver appointments were used.

Guests were seated at individual tables covered with red cloths and centered with red candles and greenery in the den. Gifts were displayed in the entrance of the den on a large table covered with a floor-length cloth for the guests to view.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout in keeping with the Christmas jubilee season.

The hostess' gift to the honoree was two silver compotes. Hostesses were Mesdames V. J. Kana, Victor Maschek, David Hengst, Wilbert Kuehner, Charles Glueck, Raymond Lee Koblhoff.

Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Franks entertained with a family Christmas party Sunday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Baeser, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kernher, Mr. and Mrs. Audley Chapman and Mrs. Joseph R. Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Huber and Mrs. Anton Huber of Victoria; Joe Kasper of Corpus Christi; Mrs. Bob Boley, Ramona, Bill and Beth of Garwood.

Holiday decorations were used throughout the house.

The main feature in the dining room was a small old-fashioned Christmas tree, decorated with small red candles and old family heirloom ornaments.

Mrs. R. R. Shaw was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seale and sons, Bryan and Kyle, last weekend in Houston. While there she attended services at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning and the pastor at Jones Hall in the afternoon which was sponsored by the Houston Baptist Church.

Misses Louise and Geneva Bunge visited Mrs. G. W. Blumberg and Russell Stein at Seguin last Sunday.

RAMONA RALEY RECEIVES DEGREE

Miss Ramona Raley has completed her work toward her Bachelor's degree in the Bilingual Education at the University of Texas.

The University of Miami, Florida has offered her a fellowship toward her Master's degree in her field.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinder and children of El Campo visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerberman last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerberman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Antreich and children the past Wednesday and Thursday at Rosenberg.

David Beack from Sam Houston State University is spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beack.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Seigman of Dallas are spending some

Tea Shower Compliments Teresa Spanihel

Miss Teresa Marie Spanihel, bride elect of Frank Joseph Briscoe, was honored with a Tea Shower Saturday, December 11 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Raymond Lee Koblhoff.

Upon arriving, the honoree; her mother, Mrs. Leon J. Spanihel; and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. Monroe Briscoe, were presented with lovely white chrysanthemum corsages tied with red and white ribbon.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by the future bride, mothers of the engaged couple and the hostess.

The dining room table was covered with a beautiful sheer white cloth and centered with a Christmas arrangement of poinsettias.

Refreshments of prune cake, tea sandwiches, assorted Christmas cookies, minis, nuts, coffee and spiced tea were served by the bride's sisters, Mrs. Edward Swearingen and Miss Mary Jo Spanihel; and the bride's aunts, Mrs. Draper Stephens and Miss Grace Spanihel of Houston. Silver appointments were used.

Guests were seated at individual tables covered with red cloths and centered with red candles and greenery in the den. Gifts were displayed in the entrance of the den on a large table covered with a floor-length cloth for the guests to view.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout in keeping with the Christmas jubilee season.

The hostess' gift to the honoree was two silver compotes. Hostesses were Mesdames V. J. Kana, Victor Maschek, David Hengst, Wilbert Kuehner, Charles Glueck, Raymond Lee Koblhoff.

Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Franks entertained with a family Christmas party Sunday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Baeser, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kernher, Mr. and Mrs. Audley Chapman and Mrs. Joseph R. Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Huber and Mrs. Anton Huber of Victoria; Joe Kasper of Corpus Christi; Mrs. Bob Boley, Ramona, Bill and Beth of Garwood.

Holiday decorations were used throughout the house.

The main feature in the dining room was a small old-fashioned Christmas tree, decorated with small red candles and old family heirloom ornaments.

Mrs. R. R. Shaw was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seale and sons, Bryan and Kyle, last weekend in Houston. While there she attended services at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning and the pastor at Jones Hall in the afternoon which was sponsored by the Houston Baptist Church.

Misses Louise and Geneva Bunge visited Mrs. G. W. Blumberg and Russell Stein at Seguin last Sunday.

RAMONA RALEY RECEIVES DEGREE

Miss Ramona Raley has completed her work toward her Bachelor's degree in the Bilingual Education at the University of Texas.

The University of Miami, Florida has offered her a fellowship toward her Master's degree in her field.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinder and children of El Campo visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerberman last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerberman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Antreich and children the past Wednesday and Thursday at Rosenberg.

David Beack from Sam Houston State University is spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beack.

Mr. and Mrs. Kay Seigman of Dallas are spending some

GARWOOD AND NADA COMMUNITY NEWS

MRS. J. F. STROUSKA - 755-3352

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Swoboda spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Freeport as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Huvor and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bunge, Misses Louisa and Geneva Bunge attended the funeral of C. M. Hansen at Duwag last week.

Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Troy Kruetz and Kenneth Baumgarten are both home from the hospital and adjusting.

Mrs. Margaret Bunge visited her mother, Mrs. Abbie Anderson at Midfield last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wall-gura's guests weekend before last were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Higgins and daughter Jessica of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barouch and children, Angela and Damon, of Pasadena.

Glen Helmer, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Helmer, was hunting on the Stallman Ranch and brought in a three-point deer last Saturday.

Bible Study

Mrs. Lawrence Berger and Mrs. E. E. Green were hostesses for the Garwood Bible Study December 8th at their home.

Mrs. R. H. Shaw led the Bible Study on the ninth chapter of Matthew and gave some reports on missions. All eight present participated in the discussion.

The hostesses served cake, cookies, minis and coffee at the close of the meeting.

Janet Sue and David Jack Lundquist of Rocky Ford, Colorado visited Mrs. Olga Lundquist of Rock Island and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Waligura of Garwood for the past two weeks.

David are the children of Kenneth Lundquist and Scottie Waddell Lundquist, formerly of Garwood.

Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Franks entertained with a family Christmas party Sunday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Baeser, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kernher, Mr. and Mrs. Audley Chapman and Mrs. Joseph R. Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Huber and Mrs. Anton Huber of Victoria; Joe Kasper of Corpus Christi; Mrs. Bob Boley, Ramona, Bill and Beth of Garwood.

Holiday decorations were used throughout the house.

The main feature in the dining room was a small old-fashioned Christmas tree, decorated with small red candles and old family heirloom ornaments.

Mrs. R. R. Shaw was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seale and sons, Bryan and Kyle, last weekend in Houston. While there she attended services at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning and the pastor at Jones Hall in the afternoon which was sponsored by the Houston Baptist Church.

Misses Louise and Geneva Bunge visited Mrs. G. W. Blumberg and Russell Stein at Seguin last Sunday.

RAMONA RALEY RECEIVES DEGREE

Miss Ramona Raley has completed her work toward her Bachelor's degree in the Bilingual Education at the University of Texas.

The University of Miami, Florida has offered her a fellowship toward her Master's degree in her field.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hinder and children of El Campo visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerberman last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerberman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Antreich and children the past Wednesday and Thursday at Rosenberg.