Payrolls are On Increase in County

According to a Government report, just released, the number of business establishments in operation in Colorado County is relatively large.

There are more of them in being locally, in proportion to population, than in many areas of the country.

The report, which is entitled "County Business Patterns," was compiled by the Department of Commerce in cooperation with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Essentially, the data is based upon tax reports submitted by employers under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. It provides information on the number of working people in each community who are covered by Social Security, the amount they earn and the number of establishments that employ them.

Listed in Colorado County are a total of 465 business firms or establishments, more persons. The number is exclusive of "Mom and Pop" operations that are self-employed.

Of the total, 283 have four employees or less, 89 have five to nine and 55 have 10 to 19.

The predominance of moderate-size businesses in the local area conforms to the pattern in most parts of the country.

Their durability in the face of competition is indicated by the figures, which show that no less than 92 percent of the local establishments have fewer than 20 employees.

Throughout the United States as a whole, 88 percent have less than 20, and in the State of Texas, also 88 percent.

With respect to the employment situation, the findings are that Colorado County's business firms provide a total of 1,066 jobs covered by Social Security.

Not included are farm workers, self-employed persons, domestic workers, people on government payrolls.

Despite the number of people unemployed, wage scales have been on the rise. At the same time, more workers have been coming under the Social Security umbrella. As a result, payrolls have been going up locally.

The current report lists the annual payroll for covered workers at $27,726,000. In 1973, when a similar study was made, it was $15,598,000.

Martha Class Hears Devotional By Mrs. Nash

The Martha Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Robert Griffith the evening of June 9, 1977.

After requests for prayer had been made, Mrs. Clara May Nash led the group in prayer. Mrs. Nash brought an inspiring devotion by reading excerpts from the book "I'm Out to Change My World" by Ann Kimmel. The quotations were enhanced by several songs presented by Miss Clara Nash. Included in these numbers were "Dear Lord, Remember Me," "Send I Your and To God Be the Glory."

The group also enjoyed seeing a film of the Vacation Bible School conducted by the First Baptist Church in 1968. The film was presented to the church library by Mr. and Mrs. Larell Dye in honor of the Martha Class. Mrs. Paul Powers closed the meeting in prayer.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments including dips, chips, and watermelon.
