

HANK YOU.

The Melvin Graham family would like to take this opportunity to thank the many individuals who expressed much concern and interest when Mel had his accident. It's a wonderful feeling to have so many people care. Thank you for your prayers, phone calls, cards and flowers.

Appreciation is extended to Johnny and Emily Garza, Jr. Mr. & Mrs. Gene Jones and Bill Reynolds.

Special thanks go to the wonderful farmers, Harold Thomas, Gayle Thomas, Steve Balas and Richard Clipson, who brought machines, trucks and labor and harvested our crop while we were away; also, Paul Powers, Lanny and Clark Powers, who helped us finish cutting; and many others who offered their assistance in so many other ways.

May God bless all of you.

APPROXIMATIONS ON International Sunday School Lesson

(Matthew 12:1-14)

"The man who lives without any conflicts probably lives without any enemies." The man who makes that statement very likely knows his impact on the city where he lives has been continuous for more than thirty years. He has thousands of admirers who appreciate the strong leadership he has offered. He is considered a friend to people from every strata of society. You would not have to hunt long for people who love him.

A man may find that his success in life is measured as much by the enemies he makes as the friends he makes. No one should try to be offensive or to antagonize people. Scolding people or one's conviction for the sake of popularity is equally wrong. This conviction stands not to hold people in the ministry of Jesus. He was a man motivated by love. He was God's Son who lived a perfect life. Still, he came to earth to die for the sins of men who wanted to reject God's revelation through Christ.

The Pharisees were the religious leaders at the time of Jesus. They were authorities on the writings of Moses. They wanted to live up to every commandment

The District Governor urged all Lions to set high goals for 1977-78 and to increase membership with good men who are willing to serve their community. Lions will work to increase membership by extension work to promote and establish new clubs, reach more men, and recruit new members.

Remaining about. He felt that there comes a time when men must stand for right, no matter what the cost. He knew that men must come to know God personally. More important, men must bring a person to a real contact with God. Jesus felt that a person cannot choose to ignore the truth simply to get along with others. He could not allow people to stumble along with a man-made religion when he could reveal God to men. That truth was worth dying for and is worth our living for.

Energy-Saving Tips for Hot Weather

During the summer months more than half the electricity used in most air conditioned homes goes for cooling. So, you are probably looking for ways to control your cooling system.

- Set the thermostat at the highest comfortable setting, around 78 degrees. Keeping the temperature in your house at 71 degrees could make air conditioning cost twice as much as a 78 degree setting.
- Clear away tall plants, shrubbery and other obstructions from the outside sections of central air conditioning units. The unit must have free circulation of air for good performance.
- Have your air conditioner cleaned and checked each year to insure that it is running at top efficiency.
- Keep direct sunlight out of the house with shades or draperies. Trees, shrubs, awnings and shutters also can provide shading for your home and reduce the work load of your air conditioner.
