EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

Farmers Organize

The protest movement in American agriculture shows that farmers and ranchers are in the mood to organize. They need organization more than any other group.

down their prices and take away any expected profit. By being organized, farmers can bring influence on many factors that affect their net incomes and the freedom to manage their farms.

The Farm Bureau movement through the years has proven to be an effective voice for agriculture. It is an organization which formulates its policies at the grass roots.
