Xi Pi Psi Meets With Marilyn Thomas

On Tuesday, Jan. 9th, members of Xi Pi Psi met in the home of Marilyn Thomas.

Rita Sunderman, the sorority's president, opened the meeting and asked for a report from each of the committee chairmen. Ernie Sommerlatte reported on the service project in which several members and their families sang Christmas carols around the city, stopping at homes and the Heritage House. The group gathered in song, seated on hay bales in the back of a rice truck driven by Gayle Thomas. Everyone felt the spirit of the season and had a wonderful time. Hot chocolate and cookies were served in the Sommerlatte home after the caroling.

Jo Ann Mahalite reported on plans in progress for a social to be given for Alpha Delta Phi and discussed the annual Western Dance which is a joint venture for the sororities.

Correspondence received during the month was a lovely Christmas card from the Heritage House.

Program By C. Corman
The program, entitled "Meeting Change", was presented by Cherry Corman. Beginning her program, Cherry brought out the fact that change is a daily part of our lives and we sometimes have at least a little control on the effect of change. She also stated that the outcome of almost any change takes place in one's own mind.

Cherry explained the different types of change and the end result of that particular change in a comparison of rejection versus acceptance.

Evolutionary change takes place in a wide and general populous such as political philosophy, economic trends and scientific discoveries.

Intermediate change is more easily identified with a usual shorter term of effect. Examples of intermediate change are results of elections, and natural forces such as storms.

In closing, Cherry told her audience that although we can cause change individually, some change is indeed inevitable. The manner in which each person treats change, either by rejection or acceptance, can play a major role in their emotional outlook on life.

Following the program, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be in the home of Rita Sunderman on Jan. 23rd.

Everyone is invited, welcome, and urged to attend, said the Rev. John Weston, pastor of the local United Methodist Church.

Xi Pi Psi Honors Alpha Delta Phi

Xi Pi Psi sorority honored the Alpha Delta Phi members and their husbands with a crazy T-shirt party and chili supper. The party was held at the Circle K last Saturday evening, Jan. 13th.

There were a variety of funny expressions and wacky wordings on the many T-shirts worn by the happy crowd.

With everyone seated in a large circle around the room, a game was played in which each person had to tell something they had never done. All of those who had done the particular thing put a penny in a pot in the center of the room. At the end, the person who held the most pennies, Lynda Appell, and the one with the least, Ernie Sommerlatte, shared the "pot" as a prize.

Prizes were awarded for the craziest T-shirts to Mary Ann Wood and Ray Obenaus. Each received a T-shirt as their prize.

Everyone enjoyed the delicious chili and had a wonderful time.
