When James T. (Ted) Danklefs closed his eyes to a peaceful rest at the age of 57 at 9:15 a.m. last Wednesday, Mar. 21st, citizens of the Garwood and NRG areas, his wife and nation lost an outstanding friend and leader. He was seriously ill last year and was in a Houston hospital again early in January and later was confined to the Nightingale Hospital in El Campo. Although he had remained active in rice farming and in his irrigation equipment company, his health had continued to fail. Last Wednesday morning he was rushed to the Nightingale Hospital where he passed away, bringing great sadness to his family and friends.

AAA Predicts Higher Gas Prices for Easter

Motorists driving in Texas during the Easter weekend will pay sharply higher prices for gasoline than they did last Christmas, but there should be few if any supply problems, according to a survey by the American Automobile Association throughout the state. The survey showed that nearly all the stations will be open on Friday and Saturday of the Easter weekend, but 50 percent will close on Sunday. The survey revealed that large price increases have been posted for all
