

Outstanding Older Texans To Be Named On May 3rd

(By Donella R. Pantel, County Extension Agent)
The Colorado County Extension Older Texans Committee will honor an outstanding man and woman "Older Texan" during the May 3 Older Texan Day activities at St. Mary's Catholic Parish Hall in Nada. The day's activities will begin at 11:00 a.m. with the announcement of the outstanding man and woman and hear from the Honorable Colorado County Judge Lester J. Cranek the rights of an Older Texan in Colorado County.

Colorado County Extension Older Texan Committee members Lennie Coleman (left) and Mrs. Josephine Henicke (right), both of Columbus, look on as the Honorable County Judge Lester J. Cranek proclaims May 3rd as Older Texan Day in Colorado County.

The women with St. Mary's Catholic Church will serve a lunch at 11:30 a.m. for those participating and attending the program and day's activities. The lunch will be a nutritious meal consisting of homemade chicken noodle soup, chicken salad sandwiches, gelatin-fruit desert, and beverage served for a $1.00 donation to the K.J.Z.T., the Christian Mothers, and the Catholic Daughters of Nada. Those setting up an exhibit (individual exhibits only) will receive their lunch free.

Those wishing to set up an exhibit must contact the Colorado County Extension Office at 316 Spring Street, Columbus 78934, or telephone 732-2530 by April 30.

Exhibits Available
Exhibits will be opened to the public after lunch and other activities provided include: free hypertension and diabetes screening with Mrs. Bernice Richter, State-County Health Nurse; information for Services to Senior Citizens by Mrs. Constance Use, Director; Social Security information and services provided for by the Department of Human Resources.

Another feature will be health information presented by County Health Officer Dr. Ray R. Thomas of Eagle Lake.

According to Mrs. Donella R. Pantel, Colorado County Extension Agent, this day will provide an excellent

OLDER TEXAN DAY PROCLAMATION

Whereas, county government has long been responsive to the needs of aging citizens and continues to be; and Whereas, county government has the capacity and resources to respond in planning and service delivery to the special needs of the elderly; and Whereas, county government recognizes the need for the Colorado County Extension Older Texan Committee's participation in providing education services to the elderly;

Now, therefore, I, Lester J. Cranek, Honorable County Judge

do hereby proclaim the day of May 3, 1979, as Older Texan Day in Colorado County, and I encourage all citizens to take part in honoring our Older Texans. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the County of Colorado to be affixed. Done at the Colorado County Court House this April 23 day of year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Nine.

Last Rites For Morris Milligan Held Monday

Relatives and friends learned with regret of the death of Morris Milligan in the Eagle Lake Community Hospital Saturday, April 21 at 1:30 a.m. following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 23 at 1:00 p.m. from the Providence Baptist Church with the church's pastor, the Rev. Coby Shorter, Jr., officiating. Mrs. Jennifer Sue Barrow sang "Precious Lord".

Mr. Milligan was born May 15, 1911 in Eagle Lake, the son of the late Sam and Pearl Milligan. He attended school in the Von Populi community. He confessed a hope in Christ, was baptized and joined the Friendship Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. A. H. Painter. Later he united with the Providence Baptist Church where he attended faithfully and loyally until his health began to fail.

He united in holy matrimony to Miss Seretha Watson May 11, 1936. To this union no children were born.

A daughter, Mrs. Mauder Upson, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his devoted wife, Mrs. Seretha Milligan; two children, Alvin Milligan of Eagle Lake and Mrs. Joyce Marie Hebert of Houston; one sister, Mrs. Clara Phine Gley of Eagle Lake; one brother, Willie T. Milligan of Houston; a mother-in-law, Mrs. Sheldonia Watson of Eagle

Lake; nine grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Palbearers were Roscoe Hurd, Roland Herp, Bill Roy Parker, Alvin E. Aldridge, A. J. Williams and Ernest Lemons. Named as honorary pallbearers were deacons of Providence Baptist Church.

Ben Davis Mortuary Inc. of Columbus was in charge of arrangements.

Courtroom Benches Refinished

A group of Extension Homemakers are shown with County Judge Lester Cranek, in front, viewing the attractive refinished benches in the Colorado County Courthouse in the courthouse in Columbus. The refinishings of the seven benches, each about twelve feet long, was a 1979 Extension Homemakers' Community Service Project. The refinishings, removal of numerous coats of "tacky" varnish that had repeatedly caused damage to light colored clothing of visitors to the courtroom, was done in Columbus. Anyone in the Eagle Lake community interested in the refinishings workshop is invited to contact the County Extension Agent, Mrs. Donella Pantel or her office in Columbus. Shown are, left to right, Mrs. Helen Radack of Glidden, Mrs. Josephine Henicke of Columbus, Lennie Coleman of Columbus, Miss Fay Elliott of Columbus, Mrs. Marjorie Brune of Shaws Bend, and Mrs. Elenora Schobel of Columbus. Also assisting in the project, but not shown, were Mrs. Willie Mae Smalik and Mrs. Walter Henicke of Columbus.

NEWS FROM HERITAGE HOUSE

By Resident Mary Flores

Sunday services were held in the dining room and a large group attended. We would like to say thank you to Rev. Olen Kennell for a beautiful sermon.

On Monday the residents enjoyed a movie, "Hang Your Hat on the Wind". The movie was in color so we got to see Idaho. Refreshments of punch and popcorn were served by volunteers Marie Frnka, Florence Walker and Lera Wied.

Tuesday afternoon a large group of ladies enjoyed exercising and playing volleyball with volunteer Fay Anderson. We also learned the seven words Christ spoke while he was nailed to the cross awaiting death for our sins.

Wednesday afternoon was bingo time with volunteers Tyria Penn and Lillian Parker. The residents who won got gifts as prizes.

The residents got some beautiful Easter egg baskets filled with candy eggs from the Hope Circle of Grace Lutheran Church. A special thank you is sent by the residents.

Thursday night volunteers Dennis DeLaughter and Carl Milents played their guitars and the residents sang some hymns which was enjoyed by everyone. The favorite hymn that all the residents like is "One Day at a Time".

Friday afternoon, Mrs. Lois Mills, administrator, presented plaques to resident Mrs. Ora Baker and employee Mrs. Erma Douglas as Resident and Employee for the Month of April. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served by resident Candie Hosman. The table was decorated by Miss Mary Flores and Mrs. Mae Price, S.A.D.

Birthdays in May are: Bill Barrow, 5th; Lola Moore, 5th; John Zemle, 12th; Rosie Sampson, 14th; Thomas Trevino, 14th; Marshal Montgomery, 16th.
