Stunning Line-Up From Years Past

This high-kicking chorus line entertained in the Eagle Lake area over fifty-two years ago in a play which was produced here. The photo was taken in front of the W. E. McRee home on State Street. Shown left to right are: Melva McCaleb, Ney, Luverne Thessman McElhinney, Caroline Smothers B. Epps, Bertha Cain Johnson, Ruth Clapp Morse and Mary McCaleb Harrington. Only three are still living, namely Mrs. Epps, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Harrington.

Oscar Winning Documentary On Houston TV May 10

"Scared Straight" is the documentary which won the Oscar as the best documentary of the year. It is a raw, uncensored look at the inside of a prison - Rahway State Prison in New Jersey. It is controversial for its graphic descriptions of prison life - and death - and for the strong street-language used by the lifers as they try to literally scare the crime out of juvenile offenders.

Mailboxes Damaged W. Of Columbus

The Colorado County Sheriff's Department is continuing to investigate damage done to about 10 mailboxes along FM 806 and 105 just west of Columbus.

Sheriff's officers were told that two vehicles had been seen in the area.

The boxes, according to the report, appeared to be damaged when backed over by a pickup truck. A stop sign in the area had also been run over.
