Conner, Director of Respiratory Therapy at Eagle Lake Community Hospital, invites all Respiratory Therapy practitioners to participate in convention activities and the public is also invited to enjoy the educational programs that will be presented by the national leaders in pulmonary medicine.

For further information regarding the convention details in Dallas, please contact your nearest hospital Respiratory Therapy Department.

The citizens of the Eagle Lake area are fortunate to have individuals employed in their local hospital with the leadership qualities demonstrated by persons such as Dennis Conner, T.S.R.T. president, said John Chisholm, local hospital administrator.

Lawrence Bergers Attend Korean Veterans Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bergers, Elizabeth and Jeff, Garwood, and John Stephens of Eagle Lake, have recently returned from Baltimore, Maryland, where they attended the twenty-fifth anniversary of the 151st Engineers Division of the Army reunion. These veterans and their families have carried on the tradition of having a reunion every two years, since their return from Korea, and the 1981 reunion will be held in Florida. There are from eight to ten couples attending the reunions, with four couples from Texas, others from South Dakota, Kentucky, Kansas, Missouri, Florida and Maryland. While in Baltimore, they visited Fort McHenry, where the Star Spangled Banner was written, and many other points of interest. They also had the pleasure of visiting with John Warren, formerly of Garwood.

In Washington, D. C., they toured the Capital, the White House, Smithsonian Institute, Jefferson Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, the Arlington National Cemetery, including the John F. Kennedy grave, and the changing of the Guard, Mount Vernon, and other places of interest.

On route, they visited the Oscar Key family in Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Bergers with a lovely dinner party on the Ohio River on the occasion of their twenty-first wedding anniversary. They also toured the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

Their return home brought them through the Gulf States.

State Accordion Contest In El Campo Aug. 25

The Second Annual Texas State Accordion Contest will highlight the 1979 El Campo Grande Day, the unique South Texas folk festival, to be held Saturday, August 25.

Accordionists of all ages will participate in the contest, according to Frank Vanek, chairman. Both amateur and professional instrumentalists can participate in the open section to compete for the official state championship and there will also be awards in junior and senior classifications.

Folk music, food and dance will be featured throughout the festival. The contest, however, is the main attraction. The citizens of the Eagle Lake area are fortunate to have individuals employed in their local hospital with the leadership qualities demonstrated by persons such as Dennis Conner, T.S.R.T. president, said John Chisholm, local hospital administrator.
