Raft Race Begins At Columbus Saturday

Rambling raft racing, a gigantic river party, is coming to the Houston area for the first time ever this Saturday down on the Colorado River in Columbus. For a nominal entry fee, plus the cost of building or renting a "raft" – which can be just about anything that floats – Texans can enter in one of the most enjoyable or original events of the season. Or they can park a picnic and simply come to watch. The Ramblin' Raft Race is sponsored locally by Schlitz and 104 KRBE Radio in Houston.

The Great Ramblin' Raft Race started in 1968 as a fraternity stunt to help clean up the Chattahoochee River in Atlanta. Organized by Larry Patrick, a Georgia Tech student, the race was originally a contest to see who could collect the most litter out of the river during the course of a leisurely nine-mile raft "race."

The local race in Columbus will cover a nine-mile stretch of the Colorado River, beginning about nine miles north of Columbus on Highway 71 to Austin, on a course heading back south towards the Gulf. Participants may buy or rent inflatable rafts of canvas, vinyl or rubber or may make their own craft, using poles, oars, paddles or paddlewheels to propel them. Basic requirements are that homemade crafts may not be made from items designed for aquatic purposes, like hulls or canoes; that any device used for flotation such as styrofoam or innertubes, must be completely and independently buoyant, no matter how it is placed in the water; and that metal barrels and metal flotation devices are not permitted.

Candy Loving, Playboy's 25th Anniversary Playmate, will be in attendance at the Columbus Race as special guest star and Queen of the River.

Formal registration begins at the starting site in Columbus at 8:30 a.m. the Saturday morning. The race begins at 11:00 a.m. and lasts about three hours. Awards are given, not only for the fastest time down the Colorado River in each craft category, but for originality and attractiveness of craft, the spiritedness of the crew (plus their costumes and decoration of their craft) and for the largest collection of litter bagged from a raft during the race.

NEWS FROM HERITAGE HOUSE

By Bernice Karber, Resident

My dear little friend Mary Flores was taken to the hospital a few days ago. So please bear with my writing the news this week.

HH Earns Superior Honor

Thursday Aug. 23, Ms. Charline Stowers, an official of Public Health Program for the State of Texas, paid us a visit. She informed us, our Home had earned the Honor of Superior for the past year, of course we were proud as punch.

The next few days were quiet. Bible Study was on Friday, conducted by Mrs. Couvillion from Lissie Methodist Church.

Saturday, I noticed a dominoe game in the dining room. I also noticed a few friends from town visiting, which is always a pleasure.

Church Services Held

Church services were at 3:00 with the Rev. Couvillion of the Lissie United Methodist Church giving the message on the 23rd Psalms.

Friday was the August birthday party. There being ten honorees. Sunday Sept. 1st church was brought to us by Rev. Sibley of the First Baptist Church. The message was from Matt. 6:9-13 "The Lord's Prayer." The singing was directed by David Green, music and youth director at the First Baptist Church.

Bible Study

Mrs. Dora Larson will be with us on Friday this month for Bible Study.

Everything was quiet the rest of Sunday and Monday. However choir practice was conducted by Mrs. Couvillion.

Then on Tuesday notice was given that a group from the Texas Dept. of Human Resources was coming. Of course things began to pick up. We got on our good behavior and polished the silver.

The team, with us for three days, was very nice and gave us a good rating.

Mrs. Douglas Has Baby

In the midst of all the busy people those three days, Mrs. Douglas, one of our beloved L.V.N.s called that she was leaving home to Le admitted to the hospital to have her baby. Then things began to buzz again. . .we have a new baby girl.

Bingo was on Wednesday. Two ladies, Lillian Davis and Tyria Penn from the Helping Hands called the game.

Dorothy Carley gave "Mr. Bill" two potted plants, he gave them his best tender, loving care, but the poor babies looked him square in the face, then closed their little eyes.

Been nice visiting with you. Mary will be back soon.

RURAL HOME LOANS

You may know some advantages of building a home in the country.

But do you know the advantages of financing it through the Federal Land Bank?

Now the Federal Land Bank offers financing for rural homes to qualified non-farmers as well as farmers. Who is qualified? Generally, any family who lives – or plans to live – on a farm, on country acreage, or in certain towns of less than 2,500 population.

Land Bank loans are made for long terms to keep payments small. Prepayments may be made without penalty, and interest rates are as low as economic conditions permit. If you are thinking about a rural home loan – to buy, build, remodel or refinance – be sure to investigate the possibility of Land Bank financing.

County Gets Petitions For St. Opening, Bridge

Colorado County Commissioners' Court, Monday, recognized receipt of two petitions, one asking for the opening of a street in Sheridan and the other for a bridge on Sandies Creek southeast of Rock Island, and took action on the opening of the Sheridan street but tabled action on the bridge request.

Twelve residents of Sheridan petitioned the court to open West Fourth Street and Avenue F to the intersection of the two roads in order to provide access to properties which the petition says is vital to the growth and to housing in Sheridan.

Precinct 1 Commissioner Otto Loessin told the court that an individual property owner had built a fence across West 4th Street and was claiming that the fence has been up from 20 to 30 years and that he has adverse possession of the road right of way.

County Judge Lester J. Cranek read a report from County Attorney Don Bendy, whose opinion was asked on the legality of the adverse possession claim, and the county attorney referred to Article 5517 of Vernon's Anotated Texas Civil Statutes that adverse possession cannot be claimed on dedicated streets or roads, dedicated to the county, city or state for public use.

Bendy said that his investigation showed that a C.L. Pierce filed a plat of the townsite of Sheridan dedicating streets, alleys and parks for public use. Hence the county attorney said it was his opinion that the individual who had fenced the property could not claim ownership of the property even though he had fenced the property for over twenty years.

Judge Cranek concurred with the county attorney's opinion and the court voted to advise the individual who had fenced the property, of the county attorney's opinion and ask that the fence be removed so that the road can be extended to the intersection with Avenue F.

Bridge Petition

Twenty-five landowners in the Sandies Creek area southeast of Rock Island petitioned the court to construct a bridge on a county road adjacent to Sandies Creek subdivision over Sandies Creek. It was noted that most of the petitioners had addresses from out of the county.

Loessin, in whose precinct the petitioned area lies, told the court that estimated cost of construction of the bridge was around $300,000. Because of this excessive cost, the court took recognition of the petition and made a motion that the petition be tabled for further consideration. Some discussion was given to the possibility of constructing an upgraded low water crossing at the site, one which would permit vehicular traffic for all but perhaps five days per year, said Loessin.

Damages For Materials

The court also authorized County Attorney Bendy to take necessary action to recover damages which have resulted in Precincts 1, 2 and 3 from the use of substandard materials in paving done in 1978. It was noted that asphalt oil used by the paving company has proven to be substandard and is not holding rock and is peeling up. Since work was also done by the same company, but at a different time, in Precinct 4 and this paving appears to be good, it is believed the asphalt materials was substandard, and the county believes that it is entitled to damages resulting from the use of such substances.

Another Bridge Problem

The court also discussed another problem which has arisen with the eroding of the embankment on the southwest side of a bridge on County Road 291, known as the Shell Plant Road, just east of Sheridan.

Commissioner Loessin said that consultants from Bass Bridge Co. and Hanna Construction Co. have examined the eroding areas and have offered suggestions for possible solutions.

The Hanna engineers offered a quotation of from $22,000 to $30,000 for repair work in the eroded area which would provide immediate relief and prevent immediate failure but would remedy the situation only for an indefinite time.

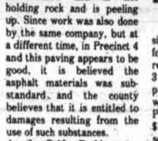
Another quotation by the firm called for a 30-foot extension to the southwest end of the bridge onto solid ground, using the same size bridge, which is a one-way bridge, at a cost of from $45,000 to $60,000; and the other proposal was to build a new 100-foot long bridge, correcting its alignment with the creek to prevent future eroding, at a cost of $95,000 for a 20-foot wide bridge and $110,000 for a 24 foot wide structure.

It was noted that the road is less than two miles in length and connects with private Shell property about three quarters of a mile from the bridge site.

Judge Cranek pointed out that there is another entry to the Sheridan plant, from Sheridan, a road which also is partially on county property and partially on Shell property.

Loessin said that it is possible that a low-water crossing could be placed at a much lesser cost, but he would like to investigate the situation further.

The court agreed to notify Shell that the county does not plan to repair the bridge because of the excessive cost and of possible plans for a low-water crossing, for its reaction to the proposal.



When hammering a small nail, hold the nail with an old pair of tweezers. The nail will be driven straight, and your fingers will be protected.

County Buys Bridge Pipe, B'hoe/Loader

Colorado County Commissioners' Court accepted bids for the purchase of bridge replacement pipe for Precinct 3 at a cost of $15,993; and the purchase of a new tractor with backhoe and loader for Precinct 4 at a cost of $17,900, during the regular session Monday.

Precinct 3 Commissioner Crockett Leyendecker asked bids for three 60-foot sections of 12 ga. galvanized pipe 120-inches in diameter and one 60-foot section of 72-inch pipe.

Three bids were received with Le Roy Schroeder of Brenham the low bidder, offering the 120-inch pipe for $73.70 per linear foot and the 72-inch pipe for $45.45 per linear foot.

Ramco Steel of Houston offered the 120-inch pipe for $76.50 and the 72-inch pipe for $47.50 per foot; and W. A. Virnau and Sons, Inc. of Sealy offered 120-inch pipe for $81.50 per foot and 72-inch pipe for $53.50.

A fourth bid was received too late and was returned to the bidder without consideration.

Leyendecker said he will use the pipe on Hobson Creek and Criers Creek crossings on Ehlinger Road between Freisburg and Ellinger.

Precinct 4 Commissioner Bill Stiles voted against the purchase, stating that he questioned legal right of way easements for the crossings.

Backhoe-Loader Bids

There were four bidders for the tractor backhoe and front end loader for Stiles' Precinct 4 with W. A. Virnau and Sons, Inc., of Sealy and Eagle Lake, the low bidder with a net bid of $17,900. Virnau offered the Massey-Ferguson 50C unit, with list price of $35,328.98 and allowed $17,438.98 trade in for a used John Deere 500 tractor and a used Gallion 118 maintainer, for a net price of $17,900.

Mustang Tractor of El Campo offered a JCB-3C for $24,720 net after $5350 allowance for trade-ins; Hyco Equipment of Houston offered a John Deere 410 for $19,773 net after $8,120 trade-in allowance; Eagle Tractor, Inc. of Eagle Lake, offered a Case 580C for $19,064.86 net after $17,905.14 trade-in allowance. Eagle Tractor offered as an option smaller tires at a discounted price of $1140.00.

The motion to approve the purchase from Virnau passed 3-1 with Commissioner Leyendecker voting against accepting the bid.

Health Insurance Bids

The court authorized County Judge Lester J. Cranek to prepare specifications and advertise for bids for Group Health Insurance for county employees, with the bids to be opened at the Oct. 8th meeting. Crown Insurance Co. currently has the policy with the county.

The court authorized the purchase of election supplies for the forthcoming Texas Constitution Amendment election to be held on Nov. 6th; and set as pay for the election officials and clerks at $2.90 per hour with a $10 payment for return of the box. State law permits payment of up to $3.00 per hour for election officials and $20 for return of the box.

Election Officials Named

The court also approved the list of election judges and assistant judges for the eighteen voting precincts and for the absentee voting, with the list the same as in the past with the exception of two changes.

The court named Mrs. Doris Hooper as alternate presiding judge in Rock Island Precinct 6 replacing Mrs. Ethel Niecwander; and Mrs. Lera Kuehs as alternate judge in Shaws Bend Precinct 11 replacing William D. Kuehn. G. C. Meyer is presiding judge in Rock Island and Edwin Poenitzsch in Shaws Bend precinct.

Ambulance Insurance Policy

The court approved a motion to clarify charges to be made to persons who are being transported by an ambulance from one of the units in this county and supplemental services are required because of a breakdown in equipment, etc. The motion noted that those being transported would be charged at the rate which would apply in this county only and not for additional costs required for supplemental services.

Telephone Line Burials

The court approved burial of telephone lines after a lengthy discussion with Dane Harris, contract supervisor for the Richmond District of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Precinct 3 Commissioner Crockett Leyendecker told Harris that the contractor has been negligent in not placing the buried cables the required 24 inches in some areas of his precinct and county equipment has severed or damaged several cables. Precinct 1 Commissioner Otto Loessin added his comments that more supervision is needed and that the commissioners do not have time to follow up the contract work.

It was noted that buried lines across graveled county roads have created problems with road maintenance.

They and other members of the court asked Harris for better cooperation and approved the burial applications provided that some improvement in the program is evident during the next six months. It was indicated that if this cooperation does not come forth, the county might invoke its right to require performance bonds and more stringent specifications before future agreements are executed.

Harris said that he would make every effort to see that the lines are laid to the required 24-inch depth and that roads be put back in as good shape as possible. He asked that he be notified of any negligence in these requirements.

Bounty Report

The judge reported that $20 bounties were paid on 5 coyotes trapper by specially appointed trappers in this county and $5 bounties to 3 individuals for coyote scalps during the month of August.

Public weigher's bonds were approved for Charles Barnett of Parker Bros. gravel company; Anthony V. Kallina of Kallina Dryer, H. H. Rowe of Altair Dryer, Kenneth Mahalite of Mahalite Public Scales, and Jeanette Zajicek of Eagle Lake Rice Dryer.

Reports Reviewed

Judge Cranek reported that the four ambulances operating in the county made 70 runs in August with fees totalling $2480; 18 in Columbus, 16 in Weimar and 36 in Eagle Lake.

The Senior Citizens' van carried 114 passengers in August on 24 different days for a total of 1264 miles using 160.9 gallons of gasoline.

The former county health nurse, now State Health Nurse Bernice Richter, reported that 344 persons visited the new state clinic in Columbus City Hall in August and that she made 10 home visits.

Payment of accounts was authorized but only after the court discussed the addition of a clock to a new car delivered to the sheriff's department at a cost of $41.50. County Auditor M. L. Briscoe withheld payment because the clock had not been included in the specifications. Judge Cranek commented that Sheriff Mueller anticipated that the clock would not be necessary but he has found that he does need the clock in order to check times of reports made by deputies and had the clock installed. After discussion on such additions after bids are accepted, Precinct 2 Rafael Veselka made the motion and Judge Cranek seconded the motion to approve payment of accounts and the motion passed unanimously, 5-0.
