

Kathy Sanders, Billy Bazinet Exchange Vows Here Sept. 22

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bazinet

Miss Kathy Sanders and Billy Bazinet were united in marriage on Saturday, September 22, 1979 at 7:00 p.m. Rev. Kenneth Temple officiated at the pretty wedding ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sanders of Eagle Lake. The groom's mother is Mrs. Mary Bazinet of El Campo.

Decorating the church was an archway entwined with blue and pink silk flowers and English ivy.

Mrs. Gail Bradshaw, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Clara May Nash, offered favorite selections of the bride and groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a gown designed by Bridal Originals. The gown featured an empire waist with long sheer sleeves and the bodice trimmed in lace. The high neckline and back was of lace and flowers.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink and blue silk flowers accented with baby's breath and ribbons.

Bride's attendants: Mrs. Stacy Wilson, friend of the bride, served as Matron of Honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Bazinet, sister of the groom, and Brenda Krenk, friend of the bride, both of Wharton.

The groom's mother wore a blue gown accented by silver accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of wine and pink silk flowers.

The reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake.

The tables were decorated with blue skirts and white cloths and trimmed with darker blue ribbon accented by the bride's attendants.

Members of the houseparty were Terry Rutherford, Debbie Wells, Belinda Baker, Denise Sanders, Vickie King, and Bobbie Bazinet.

After returning from their wedding trip to New Braunfels, the couple will reside in El Campo.

The bride graduated from Rice High School. The groom is employed with the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. in El Campo as a route salesman.

Rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's mother, Mrs. Mary Bazinet, in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake.

After a sumptuous meal of barbecue and the trimmings was served, the bride and groom exchanged gifts and presented gifts of appreciation to their attendants.

WCJC Home-Coming This Week

Homecoming Week at Wharton County Junior College in Wharton began dramatically Tuesday, October 9 when the college's first official flag was unfurled at the dedication of a beautiful new $30,000 three-flagpole setting donated by Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Miceli of Wharton.

Other Homecoming Week events include run-off elections on Wednesday, October 10 to select five finalists for queen crowning rites at halftime during the Saturday, October 13 Texas Junior College Football Conference game that starts at 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium on the Boiling Highway.

Included in the Homecoming nominees and sponsoring organizations are: Judy Glueck of Cat Spring, Sophomore Class; La Cris Hlavinka of East Bernard, Newman Club; Joyce Johnson of Wallis, Green Room Players; and Debbie Harris of Columbus, Dental Hygiene.

A big homecoming pep rally is scheduled Thursday, October 11 at 7:30 p.m. on the east campus where Pioneer Aggie-Rodeo Club members are gathering.

WCJC clubs and organizations have started to build floats and will decorate cars for their homecoming beauties to ride in during the downtown Wharton parade on Saturday, October 13 at 3 p.m.

The Young Americans Club has announced it will sponsor a disco dance after the Homecoming Game in the Pioneer Student Center. Admission to the dance is $2.50 per person.

"Streetcar named Desire" at WCJC Ends Thurs.

The tragic, effective drama "A Streetcar Named Desire," which ranks as one of the greatest of the American theatre, is being presented October 9-11 by the Theatre Department and Green Room Players at Wharton County Junior College in Wharton.

Tennessee Williams' classic reveals to the very depths the character of Blanche DuBois, a woman whose life has been undermined by her romantic illusions that have led her to reject realities of life.

Included in the cast is Brenda Argo of Eagle Lake as the Flower Lady.

Certain time is at 7:30 p.m. in the DuSoy-Hansen Fine Arts Theatre at WCJC. Admission is $1.50. Tickets may be reserved in advance or purchased at the door on the evening of the performance.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Edna Elliott

Funeral services for Mrs. Edna Elliott, the former Miss Edna Heiney, were held in Olney, Texas, September 27. Burial was in the Annetta Cemetery near Weatherford.

Mrs. Elliott was born on October 21, 1891, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Amanda and William T. Heiney. She moved with her parents and a sister, Agnes, to a farm north of Eagle Lake in 1907. After several years of farming, they moved to this city and rented a hotel known as the Callison House. The Callison House stood where the Community Center is now located.

She graduated from the Eagle Lake High School with the class of 1908. In 1913, her family bought the Brown Hotel that was located back of the old city hall and named it the Heiney Hotel, which name it retained until 1947 when Mrs. Elliott sold it.

Mrs. Elliott assisted her parents in operating the Heiney Hotel until the outbreak of World War I when she accepted a position as secretary with the War Department in Washington, D.C. On December 28, 1923, she married Robert Lee Elliott at Eagle Lake.

Mrs. Elliott and her husband lived in Sweetwater, Texas and Memphis, Texas. She moved to Olney five years ago.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father and a sister, Mrs. Agnes Townley. She is survived by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Bonnie Myers of Olney.
