Comm. Choir Presents Stirring Xmas Cantata

The Christmas Cantata, "Carols of Christmas," was presented by the Community Chorus in the United Methodist Church of Eagle Lake on Wednesday evening and all who heard the inspiring presentation agreed that it was the best ever presented by the choir.

The singers from the churches of this community and Lingo, were directed by Dr. Raymond R. Thomas, and they displayed great talent and versatility in singing as a group and many in solo, duet and quartet presentations during the Cantata.

Prior to the singing of the cantata, the Rev. John Robinson, pastor of the host church, extended a welcome to all attending in behalf of the Eagle Lake Ministerial Alliance which sponsors the annual presentation. The invocation was given by the Rev. William E. Corvillan, pastor of the Lingo United Methodist Church.

Accompanying the singers with some very talented organ and piano music were Jerald Higgins on the organ and Mrs. Clara May Nash at the piano.

Portions of the Cantata included: "The Christmas Invitation" with presentation by the choir and solo by Mrs. Edward (Cynthia) Sanderman;

"The Prophet's Singing" with music by the choir and the women's chorus; and a tenor solo by David Goss; "The Message of the Angels" with soprano recitative by Mrs. Gerald (Gall) Bradshaw, the choir, women's chorus and a woman's trio of Mrs. William (Sally) Couper, Mrs. Dick (Nene) Richter and Mrs. Monroe (Carol) Ripper;

"The Dark, Silent Town" with bass recitative by George Welch, soprano duet by Mrs. William (Lynda) Appel and Mrs. Richter, the choir, a soprano-tenor duet by Mrs. Corvillan and Goss, and an alto solo by Mrs. Sanderman;

"Come To The Manger" with music by quartet of Mrs. Corvillan, Mrs. Richter, Goss and Draper Stephens; "Guided By A Star" with tenor recitative by Goss, a tenor-tenor duet by Goss and Welch, and music by a men's chorus, and solo by Mrs. Bradshaw, Stephens, Clark Powers, and Welch;

"The Adoration" with bass solo by Welch and the choir; "Thrice Holy Day" with the choir and women's chorus; And concluding the presentation was the inspiring "Hallelujah" from Handel's "Messiah" sung by the choir.

Also singing in the choir were: Frank Davidson, Rick Higgins, Don Denny, Everett Anderson, the Mendoneses, Clark (Vicki) Powers, Bill (Elizabeth) Reynolds, Frank (Anna Lee) Higgins, Herman

Frank Higgins' Entertain Comm. Choir, Families, At Buffet

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins hosted a lovely buffet dinner party following the Christmas Cantata at United Methodist Church on Wednesday evening of last week.

The guests were members of the community choir, their families, and a number of close friends.

The spacious home was lovely in the Christmas motif with burning logs in the fireplace adding both warmth and beauty for the large number of guests.

An abundance of sumptuous holiday food in silver and crystal appointments was served from the large dining table. Wassail, coffee and punch added the final touch to the delicious meal.

Visiting was enjoyed and all present heaped praise on the choir members, director and accompanists for the excellent and inspiring Christmas Cantata.

Hurricane lamps tied with Christmas ribbons lighted the entry walk and, as usual, the Higgins' home had many attractive Christmas decorations, both indoor and out.

Secret Sisters were revealed at Santa distributed gifts to each member. The men enjoyed receiving gag-gifts in various forms, ending a fun-filled evening. Reporter.

Members of Xi Psi Psi were welcomed by Dorothy Cassidy to their lovely home on December 12 for the last meeting of the year. Amid lovely Christmas decor, Ernie Bullock conducted the business meeting. After committee reports were heard, Mary Lou Seymanski was re-elected Rosebud Girl.

Refreshments were served from a beautiful array of cheeses, cake and cookies as the group then was treated to a delightful program.

Northwestern Europe was the topic for the night. Dale Cassidy narrated a slide movie program with pictures he had taken during two visits to Europe. Germany was pictured as a beautiful and beautiful, then on to London, England for the scenes of the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, Queen Victoria's statue, British Parliament houses, St. Paul's Cathedral and beautiful garden areas. The Crown Jewels Collection was indeed impressive with the splendor of so much gold and multitudes of diamonds. Norwich, England was the site of many air bases in World War II. Dale and Dorothy viewed the ruins of the base where Dale was stationed and took pictures of them. The University of Cambridge was shown along with the American Cemetery in Cambridge. This was a soul moving place as it featured the Wall of the Missing, which lists over 5000 names of service men lost in action.

With the feeling they had made the trip along with the Cassidy's, the group extended thanks for the hospitality and wish all Happy Holidays. Reporter.

Mayors Sign Blood Donor Proclamation

The mayors of the three incorporated cities in this county are shown discussing the signing of a joint proclamation designating the month of January as National Blood Donor Month during which time local citizens are urged to give blood to the Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center. Signing the proclamation at a joint meeting of city officials in Columbus recently, were, left to right, Mayor Elmer Struss of Eagle Lake, Mayor Richard Heffley of Columbus, and Mayor Davis Gindler of Weimar. January Is Proclaimed Blood Donor Month

Each year, the President of the United States proclaims January to be "National Volunteer Blood Donor Month." The Governor of Texas issued a similar proclamation for the state.

The Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center serves over eighty hospitals in a sixteen county area. To help avoid a blood shortage during the month of January (traditionally a challenging time for blood supply), Mayors of the cities in the region are asked to issue a proclamation for such purpose.

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer Struss, Mayor of Eagle Lake, I, Richard Heffley, Mayor of Columbus and I, Davis Gindler, Mayor of Weimar do hereby proclaim

Decision-Making Time For Farmers

Farmers and ranchers have only a few more days to make decisions that could affect their 1979 income tax situation.

"Year-end planning can help save tax dollars," says Dr. Ashley Lovell of Bryan, area economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

He suggests that farmers and ranchers follow a systematic procedure in making end-of-year tax management moves.

Set Management Goals

First, decide what your tax management goals are. Commonly, the goal is to save income taxes, but check the impact of this goal on social security retirement income.

After defining your tax management goals, it is time to make some estimates. Calculate 1979 net farm profit, taxable non-farm income and total tax due. Estimate the same items for the 1980 tax year.

By comparing 1979 and 1980 taxable income estimates, decide whether to increase or decrease this

"This systematic procedure in reaching end-of-year tax management decisions provides a review of 1979 and another appraisal of expectations for 1980," says Lovell.

So determine your 1979 income tax status and also get a quick look at 1980. When the new decade arrives, the cash basis taxpayer loses much of the present flexibility because many income tax management strategies are no longer available for the 1979 tax year.
