HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Darrell Gertsons
Welcome
Daughter Dec. 26

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gertson, and 22-month-old daughter Kristi Gail are welcoming a new addition to their family with the birth of a new daughter and sister, Sammi Lynn. The little lady made her arrival Wednesday, December 26 at 2:33 in the afternoon at the Eagle Lake Community Hospital. The newborn weighed seven pounds and four ounces and measured twenty inches in length. Sammi's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alton New of Lissie and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gertson of Eagle Lake and great grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Metzger, Jr. and A. A. Gertson, all of Eagle Lake, and Mrs. J. E. New of Alvin. Mrs. J. E. Mayes of Corpus Christi is her paternal great great grandmother.

Here For Christmas

Lavaca County Woman Shot In Her Home

The latest report stated that investigation was continuing into the Thursday night, Dec. 20, 1979, shooting death of Mrs. Dolly D. McKinney, 55, in her home about 21 miles south of Hallettsville, in Lavaca County. Her husband, contractor Billy McKinney, was in another room of the home at the time of the shooting. The home is located a short distance from Highway 77. Officers of the Lavaca Co.

Sheriff's Dept. are investigating, assisted in the probe by Texas Ranger Morgan Miller of Victoria. The officers reported that a .380-calibre semi-automatic pistol was found next to her body in a hallway of the home by her husband. McKinney said he was watching television in another room of the home when he heard the loud shot shortly before 10 p.m. Thursday. He immediately notified authorities.

"The verdict in the death by Justice of the Peace Allen Lyons of Ezell was pending at this report. Hallettsville Herald-Tribune.

Baton Rouge, La. will spend the weekend at home. Mrs. John Barja, Sr. had the members of her family with her Christmas Day.

Funeral services for Earnest Pines were held at the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church Sunday afternoon with burial in the Green Cemetery. He was 66 years old and passed away at a Houston hospital. His survivors include his wife, Mrs. Bessie Pines, and a sister, The Goodin-Willis.
