ABOUT THE NEWS

The Headlight family extends thanks to the Albert Reuter family for a beautiful and tasty centerpiece given by Mr. Albert in the garden next to his home.

Best wishes to Mrs. Clyde (Oral) Farthing for a quick recovery from illness. She developed a serious nose bleed following the Chamber of Commerce banquet on Tuesday last week and has been confined to Eagle Lake Community Hospital since.

Although Luann Brown, daughter of the Gene Browns did not place in the Texas Junior Miss Pageant in New Braunfels last week, she reportedly had a very enjoyable and informative experience during the week-long activities at the competition.

Thanks to Luann for representing the Eagle Lake community so well. Rose High School boys are in the heart of some important competition for survival in the District 20AA championship. Plan to attend as many of their games as possible and give them the support which they so rightly deserve so that they might achieve success in district and advance to the district, regional and state competition again this year.

Two Raider exes, John Grammer and Lonnie Blunt, will be competing against each other in a junior college game in Brenham next Monday. See Jeffrey's story on page 6.

See Matthews complimented on tenth birthday at party in Community Center given by her mother, Mrs. V. T. Matthews.
