Warrant Issued For Arrest For Blocked RR Cross.

Colorado County grass impetus to its intention to keep railroad crossings from being blocked for unreasonable length of time last week, when a warrant was issued for the arrest of a railroad official at the Golden Yards of Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

County Judge Lester J. Cranek reported to the commissioners court Monday that Justice of the Peace Richard G. Schmidt and an officer from the Sheriff's Dept. went to the Schulenburg crossing at Golden and found the crossing was obstructed by railroad cars for 35 minutes. He said that it had been reported to him that the crossing had been closed throughout the weekend.

Present One Commissioner Otto Loessin emphasized that the crossings there are three of them in the Golden area need to be kept open because of the extensive work being done in the area on the north side of the tracks by the contractor for the Highway 71 Bypass project.

The Commissioners' Court, in session Jan. 14th, indicated that it wanted the crossings kept open "using common sense judgment" in compliance with the state statute that says that railroad crossings shall be blocked for no more than five minutes at a time, and if found in violation, the conductor of the train may be fined up to $200 for each occurrence.

Complaints had been received by residents north of the tracks at Golden that the crossings are often blocked by railroad cars for long periods of time.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lee Doubt

Marked with satin ribbons, and the wedding party pews were accented with burgundy ribbon and pink roses.

Wedding selections, "The Wedding Song," "The Wedding Prayer," "The Lord's Prayer," "How Great Thou Art" and "Ave Maria" were presented by Mrs. Clarence Martin, organist, and William Carpenter, soloist.

Witnesses were Leonard Korenek Jr., brother of the bride, and the bridegroom's uncle, John Vivian of Victoria.

Candelighters were Duane Korenek and Stephen Drik, both of Garwood.

A street-length dress of a red, white and blue polyester featuring an A-line skirt, front buttons and a tie belt was worn by the bride's mother.

The bridegroom's mother wore a deep rose-colored, street-length knit dress with a scalloped neckline and a regular waist.

Both mothers wore corsages of fresh red roses and greenery.

A reception followed the wedding in St. Mary's Parish Hall at Nalda.

The registry table was covered with a white lace cloth and held the bride's book, a plumed pen, a basket containing scrolls and a basket of rice bags. Miss Donna Pavlik assisted guests in registering.

The bride's table, covered with a white cloth accented with burgundy bows and ribbons, was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake adorned with mauve roses and baby's breath. Topping the cake were bride and groom figurines. The table was centered with a champagne bucket and the bride's bouquet.

On the opposite end of the table was the bridegroom's Italian cream cake, inscribed with "From This Day Forward," the couple's names and the wedding date.

Mrs. Gary Wendel, sister of the bride, and Miss Pavlik served the bride's cake. The bridegroom's cake was served by Mrs. Leonard Korenek Jr., Mrs. Allan Korenek and Pat Falda.

Ladies' punch were Misses Debbie Korenek, Carol Korenek and Suzie Gold.

Guests were served a turkey dinner.

For her traveling attire, the bride chose a black knit, wrap-around dress with a V-neckline. Her corsage, taken from her bridal bouquet, was of red roses.

The newlyweds will reside at 808 1/2 Fairbend after returning from their

Ira Goats, 51, Dies In La. Porte Monday

Friends in the community will learn with sadness of the death of Ira J. Goats, 51, of La Porte and a resident here for a number of years, in a tragic accident in La Porte at around 7:35 a.m. Monday, Jan. 28th. Mr. Goats was an employee for over twenty years with Tenecco and started his employment with the company at the Chester, La. plant. He was also employed for some time here with Eagle Lake Rice Dryer and with Dr. Pepper Bottling Co.

According to information received, he was killed when his pickup truck collided with another vehicle and flipped over and caught fire. Goats was pronounced dead at the scene. Authorities here said that his car was on the northbound on a "La-Porte" street when it apparently struck another northbound vehicle from behind. Then the pickup collided with a southbound utility truck before plunging over and catching fire.

The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Goats who resided in this community for many years before moving to their place in the Hallettsville-Sublime area. Their son and family reportedly had visited just last weekend with his parents.

Ira Jackson Goats was born Aug. 20, 1928. He was united in marriage with Miss Viola Muesse of this city in a ceremony here. Surviving in addition to his wife and parents, are two daughters, Mrs. Steve (Wanda) Sawyer and Mrs. Gary (Sandra) Putter, both of La Porte, and another daughter, Mrs. Mike (Joy Lynn) Pastera of La Porte, also two grandsons, and three granddaughters, Shane and Shea Lynn Porter and Wendy, Brent and Mimmo-Ann Sawyer, all of La Porte, and other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Wed. Jan. 29th, 1980 from the funeral home in La. Porte. The body was brought overland to the Sublime community later for burial and grave services in the Cedar Cemetery at 3:30 p.m. A minister of the Baptist Church in La. Porte officiated at the La. Porte services and a Baptist minister from Hallettsville at the grave services.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family in the loss of this loved one.
