Raider Band Holds Magazine, Record Sale

(By Judy Bunge)

The members of the Raider Band are now sponsoring their annual magazine subscription and record sale. The sale started January 30, 1980, and will run through February 14, 1980.

Each band member is asked to fill ten orders. If he reaches this quota, he will receive an exclusive Raider windbreaker. Anyone selling double his quota or 20 orders will receive a large stuffed animal.

Also, special awards are given to anyone who receives subscriptions of TV GUIDE or NEWSWEEK magazines.

Philip Leopold, who was the first day turn-in high sales person, received a cash prize of $50. Vickie Eberhardt won second place in this contest and she received a large stuffed animal. The third place award went to Bridget Beyette.

When the band reaches its final goal of $9,000 or 1,000 orders, a drawing will be held for those students who sold their quota. The winner will receive a portable TV with a hand radio by J.V.C.

Meet The Rice Raider Boy Cagers

(By Julie Criswell)

This week the Raider sports light focuses on Ernest Fields. Ernest is a junior and plays basketball on the varsity team. He has been playing basketball for three years. This year Ernest plays the position of forward as he wears the number 15. He is averaging 12 points a game. Ernest also played on the varsity football team. He is also an active member in the Future Farmers of America.

Ernest was disappointed with the results of the Columbus game but he feels that they should work just as hard for the "up coming games."
