Oneida Sterling

Before her marriage, she was a school teacher for several years at Shaw's Bend, Wilbourn, and Berard. She was reared in the Lutheran faith but joined the Methodist church over fifty years ago and was a long-time member of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church of Garwood. Mrs. Stallman was a loving wife and mother and her home and family always came first. She had many talents; was a photographer as a young adult, and wrote many poems during her lifetime, many of which were published in this paper and in other publications. She also did many intricate pieces of needlework, and kept busy with her hands until her death. She shall be dearly missed by her loved ones and friends. Survivors include: three daughters, Mrs. Edrie Foley of Lytle, Mrs. Rosemary Smith and Mrs. Pauline Foley of Garwood and two sons, Wilton Stallman of Columbus and Neal Stallman of Garwood; thirteen grandchildren; and eleven great-grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ida Stallman of Garwood and Mrs. Tillie Struss of Eagle Lake, and three brothers, Fred Walling of Columbus, Carl Walling of Austin and Walter Walling of Berard, and other relatives and friends.
