Rice H.S. Students Wins Top Places In Houston Show

By Janice Waligura
Two Rice High School students won first and second in the Junior Commercial Sales Division at the Houston Livestock Show. They were Thomas Kallina and Raymond Mahalite.

Thomas Kallina and Mrs. Anthony Kallina of Garwood, made his stay in Houston, the week of Feb. 25-29, a very successful one. Thomas won first place in the competition. His steers sold for $2,276.29 and he received an award of $1,000 and a 1980 Dodge pickup truck.

Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mahalite of Eagle Lake, won second place and had four choice steers and four prime steers at the show. He received an award of $500 cash.

In the contest, the students were judged on a point system, which included a test, being interviewed, the steer itself, keeping clean pens, and how accurate the records were.

We are very proud of these two young men and would like to extend our congratulations.
