Cheerleader Candidates Are Chosen

(By Pam Kallina)

The FTA held their last meeting during fifth period in the meeting room Wednesday, April 23. During the meeting, Carolyn Pavli and Veronica Salinas talked about "Why Drugs and Alcohol Don't Mix with School." Gaye Lynn Thomas and Lori Mahalic talked about "What causes people to become 'Drop-Outs'?" and then Lulu Yanez and Mary Young talked about "The importance of being an ambitious teacher." These subjects were the March, April and May programs.

Honor Roll At Rice H.S. Listed

Rice Business Club Has 10th Annual Banquet

The Rice High School Business Club held their banquet on April 22 at 7:00 p.m. in the commons of Rice High School. This was the celebration of the Business Club's 10th anniversary.

The president was given by Robert Robby Cook and the pledge was led by reporter Barbara Priboda. All of the club members recited the preamble together and Sharon, Scholton, treasurer, said the invocation.

After the invocation, members and special guests heartily feasted on barbecue with all the trimmings.

Following dinner, vice-president Kelly Scholton, presented the sponsors, Mrs. Henrietta Baumgarten and Joe Wendel, with a corsage and boutonniere respectively.

Robby Cook recognized the past presidents, Mrs. Crystal Kallina and Ms. Jeanie Gold, and former original sponsor, Bill, Muns and Mrs. Grace Cooper. He also introduced the officers.

Bert Tise, recording secretary, introduced all the graduating seniors who were present, and Cliff Bradshaw introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Patsy Hodges. Mrs. Hodges is the owner of The Gallery in Columbus. She gave a very effective speech on success.

After Mrs. Hodges' speech, Randy Epps, historian, read the history of the club and Linda Popp, corresponding secretary, gave a special thanks to past sponsors.

Robby Cook presented Mr. Wendel with a gift of appreciation for all the work he has done in the Business Club and courses. The banquet was then adjourned.

The Business Club would like to thank anyone who helped in any way with the banquet.

Tise Wins Regional

(By Jenny Lee Griffith)

On Thursday, April 10, Bert Tise and Dora Jaramillo participated in the regional U.L. Ready Writing Contest at Blinn College. Only first, second and third place awards were given in this event.

Although this was Bert's first year to participate in this event, he placed second out of twenty-three other contestants. We are proud to say that Bert will represent Rice High School at the state contest in Austin on May 2.

Bert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Tise of Sublime. Congratulations Bert, and good luck in State competition.

Gaye Lynn Thomas Wins Highest FTA Honor At Rice

Winning the coveted award of being the outstanding Future Teacher of the Year was Gaye Lynn Thomas. Her service to the club was exceptional; she participated one hundred percent in the ten projects the club sponsored.

Awards were presented to those members who performed commendable service to the club during the school year. Four-year membership pins were given to Mary Young, Brenda Rucka, Lori Mahalic and Leanne Smith. Three members participated in the Teaching Experience Program and they were awarded Honor guards. These TEP students were Gaye Lynn Thomas, Donna Newsum and Leanne Smith.

Service pins went to seven members who tutored weekly after school at the Eagle Lake Primary School. Tutors were Gaye Lynn Thomas, Leanne Smith, Theresa Torres, Janie Clipson, Kathy Perry Moore, Dora Jaramillo and Patsy Gutierrez.

Future Teacher achievers were Denise Hyek, Sharla Popp and Patsy Gutierrez.
