Attend Brake Clinic

Rice Auto Mechanics students who attended an EIS Brake Clinic at Rice High School May 2nd are shown above with instructors Ted Allen and B. Barley and Auto Mechanics instructor Sidney Frey.

Brake Clinic At Rice H.S.

(By Phyllis Peacock)
On May 2, 1980, EIS Automotive Corporation presented the Rice High School Auto Mechanics classes with a program about brake systems. The program consisted of a slide presentation showing the correct way to repair and overhaul brake systems. The film strip also showed changes being made in production of today's automobiles. Each student received a Mechanics Visual Packet. The packet consisted of a service manual and a specifications

RHS Drum Major Twirlers Are Named

(By Janice Waigura)
The Drum Major and Twirlers for the 1980-81 school year were selected Wednesday, May 14, 1980, by twelve young ladies trying out for the honor of leading the Rice Raider band. Those who tried out were as follows: Drum Major: Michele Sibley, Connie Przak, and Ann Scholton; Twirler: Deleslyna Valenta, Joanna Webb, Michaelanne Hefer, Renee Hunt, Lisa Corman, Julia Rosprim, Pam Morgan and Stacey Holden.

These ladies performed before three judges who were band directors. The Drum Major for the 1980-81 school year is upcoming Senior Michele Sibley. Michele is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Melburn Sibley of Eagle Lake. The twirlers selected were upcoming Senior Deleslyna Valenta; Juniors, Michaelanne Hefer, and Renee Hunt; and Freshman, Lisa Corman. Congratulations!

Underclassmen Assembly Held

(By Judy Bunge)
The underclassmen assembly at Rice High School was held Monday, May 12, 1980. During the assembly, Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors were presented awards for accomplishments completed this school year. These included awards for perfect attendance, honor roll, participation in UIL events.

Also, the Seniors who received awards at the upperclassmen assembly, which was held Friday, May 9, were recognized. Congratulations to the students who received awards.

RHS Band's Best Band Members

Rice High School Band Director Floyd Spenrath announced the "Best Marchers" and the "Most Outstanding Band Members" in the Rice High School "Sweepstakes" Band for 1980 at a concert held at Rice High School Thursday night. At the top are the representatives of each class who were named "Most Outstanding Band Members" in 1980, left to right, freshman Patricia Fields, sophomore Cindy Rodriguez, Junior Gilbert Correll and senior Jimmy Moss. In the lower photo are the Rice High School Band's "Best Marchers" in the Division I marching band. Left to right are: freshman Melissa Hoffman, sophomore Kitty Thomas, junior Bobby Williamson and senior Philip Leopold.

Rice 'Sweepstakes' Band Presents Fine Concert

Rice High School's "first ever" Sweepstakes Band presented an outstanding concert in the Commons at Rice High School on Thursday evening of last week demonstrating the prowess which won for the band the coveted honor of being a Sweepstakes Band in 1980. To earn this honor, the Raider Band, directed by Floyd Spenrath, made straight Division I ratings in marching, sight reading and in concert. Jesus Gonzalez is
