4th of July Celebration At Wallis Planned

The Wallis Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture will hold a Fourth of July celebration this Friday on the Wallis Hole grounds in Wallis.

"The Sounds of Texas Review" is the theme of the celebration which will benefit the C. of C.A. with live entertainment by various bands being featured throughout the festivity.

An auction will be held and booths for refreshments and crafts are planned. A special activity is being planned by the Wallis Volunteer Fire Dept.'s Ladies Auxiliary.

Another feature of the celebration will be a "Battle Dance" with music by "Sounds of Texas" and "Randy Sumerlin and Renegade" starting at 9:00 p.m. at the Wallis Hole.

Advance tickets to the dance are on sale now at the Wallis Hole for $3.50. Tickets at the door will be $4.00.

Contact David Kennedy at 478-6374 for booth space or more information.

Folk, best friend of the bride. She carried a bouquet of three baby orchids with mixed greenery and ivy.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sandy Crane, friend of the bride, of Houston; Miss Jackie Guthrie, friend of the bride, of Sugar Land. Each carried a single orchid bouquet with mixed greenery and ivy.

For her attendants, the bride chose matching dark wine gowns of polyester knit. A gathered bodice with spaghetti straps around the neck was complemented with a capelet of polyester chiffon with full length split sleeves in the same shade of wine.

Best man was Tim McBride, best friend of the groom, of W. Amherst, New York. Groomsmen were: Peter Krainik, friend of the groom, of Houston; Gary DeBay, brother of the groom, of Havertown, Pennsylvania; and Dave Betko, friend of the groom, of Houston.

The mother of the bride wore a dusty rose, floor length polyester knit gown featuring a sheer, lace trimmed yoke and long sleeves. A fabric rose accented the waistline and flared skirt.

A light blue, floor length polyester knit, empire waistline gown with a long gathered skirt was worn by the bride's mother.

Hostesses for the bride's book were Miss Zoe Bays, Miss Betty Scott and Miss Carol Mongeon, all of Houston.

Reception in Country Club The reception was held in the ballroom of the Riverbend Country Club. Music was provided by Brown Sugar. Fresh flowers of the bride's chosen color, wine, and candlelight enhanced the decor of the catered champagne reception.

The bride's table was highlighted with a three-tiered wedding cake of pineapple separated by columns with three smaller cakes of chocolate, banana and carrot surrounding the base. Topping the cakes and in between the columns were fresh floral arrangements of dahlias and carnations.

Out of town guests of note included Mrs. Estelle Baish, the groom's grandmother, of Natrona Heights, Pennsylvania; Merle R. Scott, the groom's grandfather of Tarentum, Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. Tim McBride of W. Amherst, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Gary DeBay of Havertown, Pennsylvania; Miss Lynne Ross of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Borison of Freeport, Pennsylvania; and Miss Linda Bilkley of Arlington, Virginia.

The couple chose a flight to Bermuda for seven days for their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. DeBay will make their home in Houston.

Rehearsal Dinner Mr. and Mrs. N. L. DeBay hosted the rehearsal dinner for the Vasina-DeBay wedding party on May 23, 1980, at the Sugar Creek Country Club.

The U-shaped table was decorated with candelabra and arrangements of fresh flowers.

Reverend W. E. Dugger offered the invocation. The wedding party of 30 enjoyed a menu of: a couple of fresh fruit, french onion soup, tossed mixed salad of the season, Veal Cordon Bleu, pecan ball and wine.

During the evening a wedding toast was given to the bride and groom by the best man. The wedding attendants were then presented with gifts and the mothers and grandmother were presented with a single ceramic rose for remembrance of this special occasion.

County 4-H Fashion Fling Held Last Thurs.

[By Shirley M. Brown County Extension Agent]

The Colorado County 4-H Fashion Fling was held Tuesday, June 24 at St. John's Episcopal Church Parish Hall.

Fifteen 4-H members took part in this activity. There were 11 sub-deb entries (ages 9-11), one junior entry (ages 12-13), and three senior entries (ages 14-19).

The top winners in each division were: Sub-Deb, Judy Davis; Junior, Tracy Davis; New Town 4-H Club; Senior, Sherlyn Lockett; Eagle Lake 4-H Club; and Sub-Deb Wearable, Christi Warschak of the Freelsburg 4-H Club.

The first runner up and other participants in each division were Sub-Deb: Dionne Glover, Eagle Lake 4-H Club; Angela Warschak, Patricia Canik, Carol Rhodes, Carrie Israel and "Marsha McTeer," Sub-Deb Wearable first runner up, Beth-Kahl-den, Freelsburg 4-H Club; and Seniors, Stephanie Rhodes, New Town 4-H Club, and Idella Powell.

Each of the winning participants received a trophy sponsored by the Colorado County 4-H Council. Ribbons and participation certificates were also awarded to each participant.

The four top winning 4-H members will compete in the District Fashion Fling on July 29 at Sugar Creek Country Club in Fort Bend County.

Vivian Lewis Thomas Is New Product Inspector

Mrs. Vivian Lewis Thomas has been promoted to Spin Bond Testing Training Instructor where she is employed at Hoechst Fibers Industries in Spartanburg, S.C.

This past May Hoechst Fibers sent her to Boston, Mass. for special training for a week. She said the training was interesting along with Boston itself, but would take the slow easy pace of the South any day.

Vivian was trained to test a new product the company she works for will be testing up in August called Spin Bond. Spin Bond has many areas that it can be used in: roofing, roads, railroad beds, wall coverings and many, many more. With this being a fairly new market, Vivian is very excited about her new position.

Vivian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lewis of Eagle Lake.

Thursday Guests Vivian had her last Thursday with Mrs. W. A. Barnett were her granddaughter, Mrs. Steve Miller, Mr. Miller and sons, Chip and Michael of Titusville, Florida, and her daughter, Mrs. Victor Witt and Mr. Witt of La Porte.

mothers and grandmother were presented with a single ceramic rose for remembrance of this special occasion.
