Visiting British Constable Attributes Low Crime Rate In In England To Gun Laws

Speaks At Rotary, Lions Club Meetings

Seaman's Center in Houston while he was in the Merchant Navy in 1976. The Christmas package was among those sent to the Seaman's Center by the Women of the Linneth United Methodist Church.

Hamilton, 26, a native of Southampton, England, joined the Dorset Police Force on May 21, 1979 and took duties at Dorchester as a Constable.

He brought to the meetings the familiar hat which is a prominent identification feature of the policeman in England.

Hamilton described for the Rotarians and Lions and the Seaman's Center where he serves as one about sixty miles by 100 miles on the bottom south coast of England.

He noted that England has only one law enforcement agency, the police force, however officers can specialize in various fields such as those in the United States but here they are assigned to different law enforcement agencies.

He contributed strict gun laws which exist in England as a deterrent to crime. The only weapon which the officer in England carries is the "family" stick - no gun or other weapon.

He commented that Dorset which has a population of around 150,000 has only 27 police officers and many times there are only two officers on duty to take care of an area which is sixty to one hundred miles wide.

"A shooting in England is considered incredible and creates sensational news for weeks in the news media," said the officer. He added that in special cases where needed, dogs are used by the police because people have a tendency to be afraid of dogs.

He pointed out that there are no elected officials on the police force and that it is totally non-political with complete allegiance to Her Majesty, the Queen.

He described the British police officer as "non-aggressive" and friendly and added that the "British are pro-police" and respect the police officer's authority.

Hazleton, in response to a question, said that there is very little organized crime in England, if any, and cited smuggling of drugs on the South Coast as the only possible organized crime that he knows of.

The amiable officer and his wife won many friends in the area during their month-long stay here. They appeared at numerous functions and presented programs at the Library and took part in numerous local activities and visited points of interest in Texas.

Farm-Ranch Safety Week Set

July 25-31 Is Farm, Ranch Safety Week

County Judge Crane has proclaimed July 25-31, 1980 as Farm and Ranch Safety Week in Colorado County. At the request of Leon Hatterman, Colorado County Farm Bureau Director.

This marks the 37th annual National Farm Safety Week, co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The theme for the week is "Personal Protective Equipment Protects."

In his proclamation, Judge Crane said "accidents involving Texas farm and ranch residents at work, in the home, at play, and on roads and highways accounted for over 300 fatalities, thousands of painful injuries, costing millions of dollars in 1979."

The 1979 Texas Farm Bureau Accidental Death Program records show that 322 death claims were paid in 141 different counties. Fortunately Colorado County recorded no death claims under the program. Traffic related incidents caused the most death claims, statewide, with 189.

In his proclamation, the Judge urged all farm and ranch families and those who serve agricultural producers to read safety articles, items in magazines and newspapers which feature safety, read and heed instruction manuals and product labels, be informed on what to do in

Region III Media Films Available For Public Review

Films and other audio-visual materials distributed on request to schools by the Region III Media Library will be available for local review by interested citizens four times each year.

This quarterly media "open house" for parents and other interested groups or individuals was announced by Bill Powell, Region III Media Director.

Dates for the review are set for the 4th Friday of each quarter. Future review sessions will be held on July 25, October 24, 1980 and January 23, 1981.

The 1,962 mile U.S.-Mexican border is the world's most-crossed international boundary. National Geographic says Laredo, Texas, population 70,000, alone registers more than 12 million lawful crossings every year.
