Phoebe Johnston, Rev. Charles
Meyer Married In Midland July 5

Friends in the community will be happy to hear that the Rev. Charles Meyer, former pastor of Grace Lutheran Church of Eagle Lake, was united in marriage to Phoebe Johnston of Midland, Tex. on Saturday, July 5 at 4 p.m. in their home church, Midland Lutheran Church.

Officiating the Communion service and wedding ceremony were pastors from the Midland Odessa area, friends of the bride and groom.

Relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Rick Givan from Boulder, Colo., sister and brother-in-law of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer of Hemet, California, parents of the groom. Out of town friends were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Isenhour, Patrick and Dominique from Eagle Lake.

The franchise fee paid by the sponsor covers the swim suit and the right to use the name "Miss Texas USA" in the opening television number. All expenses for her week's stay are paid for.

The winner there will complete next year in the Miss USA pageant which is preliminary to the Miss Universe pageant.

Miss Huchanek is a 1979 Commerce "Art" major at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas. She is president and charter member of Alpha Phi International Sorority and was 1979 Community Services Chairman for the organization.

Miss Huchanek will also represent the city of Columbus and state of Texas in the 1981 Miss Columbus USA pageant in October in Columbus, Ohio.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Huchanek of Columbus.

Victory was sponsored by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, with many other local patrons supporting her in various other capacities, some of which include: the Colorado County Federal Savings and Loan Association, Columbus State Bank, The Gallery, Gindler's De-moving to Heritage House. Some special guests present were the Uhlig's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Hlavinka and daughter Susan; also Mr. and Mrs. Ray Krause, brother-in-law, Herman Kveton and son Lee; Mrs. John Hlavinka of East Bernard and Leslie Stewart of Wharton. Several gifts were presented to the lovely couple with best wishes for many, many more years of happiness together.
