OEA Purchases New IBM Recorder

(By Barbara Prihoda)

An IBM Executive Recorder and Transcriber has been purchased for the OEA members. This piece of equipment is required for all VOE classrooms.

Dora Jaramillo and Susan Fryberg are two students in the VOE class who have used the recorder. When interviewed, Dora said: "The executive recorder is a very handy piece of equipment to have around in the office. I imagine that it saves the businessmen a lot of time because it enables him to dictate letters to his secretary in a very convenient manner. The second semester grade and senior is Earnest Fields, number 30. Earnest plays defense and offense as a halfback, liking offense best. When asked how he liked the coaches this year he replied, "It's the best that's ever been." He is the son of Mrs. Patricia Black.

There is Victor Davis, a senior wrestling coach, 30. He thinks we have a fine football team this year and will definitely win the game Friday night. Although he plays both offense and defense, Victor likes defense better. Victor is the son of Mrs. Lois Davis.

Another halfback and senior is Earnest Fields, number 30. Earnest plays defense and offense as a halfback, liking offense best. When asked how he liked the coaches this year he replied, "It's the best that's ever been." He is the son of Mrs. Patricia Black.

The fourth halfback is number 34, Roger Fry, who is also a senior. Roger plays as a halfback both on offense and defense, but likes defense the best. Roger thinks we have a better team this year than last year, and will win the game Friday night. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Fry Jr.

The last halfback is Rob Johnson. He is a sophomore this year and plays as number 44 on the varsity team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ullab Johnson.

Two New Students At Rice H.S.

(By Troy Hagendorf)

This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two new students. They are Stanley Schneider and Leah Parks.

Stanley was attending Dulles School near Houston. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schneider of Sheridan. He is a Sophomore here at Rice. When asked if he liked it here he said, "Yes, I do because it is a lot less crowded than where I used to go and the teachers are nice!"

Leah was attending Victor is High of Victoria. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Linsemier, who also reside in Sheridan. She is a Senior at Rice and when asked how she felt about the school she said, "I like Rice, but I'm not used to such a small school but the teachers here seem to care more about the students."

This is the first year on the Journalism Staff for all of these students. The rest of the members are excited to have them on the staff!

On Thursday, September 18, 1980, the Business Club held its organizational meeting for the 1980-81 school year. Business Club sponsors, Joe Wendel and Mrs. Henrietta Baumgarten handed out applications to the students and Mr. Wendel spoke briefly at the meeting.

One hundred and sixteen members registered at the meeting. This turn-out makes this year's Business Club the biggest in the history of Rice. The large attendance will help the club move closer to its goal of being very active this year.

The only requirements to join the club are the payment of a two dollar membership fee and an interest in business. There are several goals this organization is designed to achieve. The goals are: to prepare for leadership in the business world, to encourage improvement in scholarship, to provide awards to deserving students in business courses, to develop a sense of responsibility, to further character development, and finally to help in the intelligent choice of a business occupation.

Also, at the meeting, an "off" office. Election of officers was held on Wednesday, September 24, and the run-off election was held on Thursday. The people chosen as Business Club officers are: President, Mike Rice; Vice President, Chris Gold; Recording Secretary, Karen Ruck; Treasurer, Judy Bunge; Historian, Melissa Hoffman; Editor, John Lee Kornek, Jr. The officers will hold an executive meeting this week and plan the activities for the club.

Last year, there was a renewed interest in the Business Club and it was a year for rebuilding. This year, sponsors, officers, and members are all looking forward to making the club very active at Rice and achieving the goals of the Business Club.
