All Saints Day Observance Saturday

The observance of All Saints Day will be held this Saturday, Nov. 1st and the date is a Holy Day of obligation for Catholics, according to the Rev. Tom Hanna, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Churches.

There will be a Mass Friday at 6:00 p.m. at Guadalupe Church; and at 6:30 a.m. Saturday at Perpetual Help, and at 8:00 a.m. Saturday at Guadalupe Church.

On Monday morning, October 20, he addressed a group of clergy on the "Readings on St. John's Gospel." That evening, Dr. Stokes spoke to a large group at the Community Center on the "Authority and Finality of the Bible."

Tuesday morning, October 21, Dr. Stokes spoke to an assembly at the Eagle Lake Middle School. His topic for this talk was "How the Group Values for Living."

That afternoon he autographed his work for those that were interested and spoke informally at a reception at The Parrot 1912. Tuesday night he addressed another large group at the Community Center on the "Primary Mission of the Holy Spirit."

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Glueck, Sr. will observe their 40th Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, November 9th, 1980 with an open house at the Monte Parish Hall. A reception will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. and a dance from 4 until 8.

Invitations are extended through the press only. The family requests no gifts please.

vote and Judge Garwood will win his first elective term, Calvert said. "The lawyers of Texas who have a working knowledge of our court system have already given an overwhelming vote of confidence to Judge Garwood since he carried the State Bar preference balloting by a margin of 82% to 18%."

"However, under our political system it is not just the lawyers who have the responsibility to elect our judges. Every voter must share this responsibility, which includes the obligation to consider the qualities of the candidates as well as their political labels. Excessive partisanship has no place in a judicial election."

Third place ribbon went to the Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce's float, boosting the community as the Goose Hunting Capital of the World, with Miss Lynette Carley on the float. The fourth place ribbon went to the Marilyn Thomas Super Strutters of Eagle Lake; and second to the Lyndia Engstrom School of Dance students.

Herbert Engstrom was chairman of the parade committee and assisting were Lester Cranek, Ed Lee, Schneider and Tom Rohwer.

Other crowd pleasers along the parade route were: Sheriff and Mrs. George (Doc) Mueller in the lead automobile with the United States and Texas flags; the

To Observe 40th Wedding Anniv. Ecumenical Groups Impressed By Bishop Stokes' Addresses

Following each appearance, Dr. Stokes answered questions posed by those in attendance.

The Religious Lectures Committee feels this series was a success and that enough interest was shown to provide a similar series again next "year. Speakers and topics are being discussed at this time for future series."

Garwood Lions Fair, Carnival Is Another Great Success

Parade Opens Event Last Sat. Morning

The Garwood Lions Club's 33rd annual Community Fair and Carnival, held last Saturday in near-perfect fall weather, was another very outstanding success. The Garwood Lions and various organizations which cooperated in sponsoring booths, prizes awarded at the Fair, the fairest of the Fair competition, and also results of the domestic show are discussed in separate articles in this issue.

"Your support will enable the Garwood Lions to carry on many worthy projects in the Garwood and Nada communities," noted president White.

Concluding event of the 33rd Garwood Lions Club Fair and Carnival last Saturday evening in the Garwood school gym was the awarding of valuable prizes from many organizations participating in the Fair, also by business in the area, and by the Lions Club.

Billy Hefner, chairman of the prize committee, presided at the announcement of the winners. He was assisted in selecting the winners by Miss Fairness of the Fair Bonnie Waldrop and first runner-up Judy Waligura.

Garwood Lions Club winners were: Whirlpool Microwave oven donated by Garwood Irrigation to Bill Hefner; $100 from P&W Food Store to Ben Woodruff of El Campo; $100 from Circle W Drive Inn to Donna Dushles of Houston; $100 from Jones Engineering Service to Judy Waligura; $100 from Alair Dryer to Paul Stittman; $100 from TXI to Neal Blalman; $100 from Thorstensen Materials to E. J. Mills of El Campo; $100 from S-H-R Farms to Doug Wied; $75 Savings Account from First National Bank of Eagle Lake to W. N. Lehrer; five gallons of paint from Garwood Lumber Co. to Robert Schiuring; $50 Savings Bond from First National Bank of El Campo to Michael Waligura; electric blanket from Priemeyer's Dept. Store to Milton Kouruk; case of oil from Kallina Oil Co. to L. J. Schilling; $35 cash from Wharton County Electric Co-op to L. V. Cranek, Sr.; case of oil from Nada Garage and Station to Melvin Smith; $25 cash from Kallina Dryer to Joe Kallina, $25 from Zhranek Bros. Gravel Pit to Lillie Blidick; and $30 cash from CPL to Paul Lehrer.

The Garwood sixth grade presented its gift to Stephanie Labay; the seventh grade to Carol Rose; eighth grade to Doug Baumgarten; Catholic Daughters Court awarded its gift to Jane Wied; the Rice Band's gift to Lisa Parker; the Garwood Veterans Post 1144 gift to the Lions Club; and the Lions Club gift to the Rice Band.

Hefner said that this event netted the club $3,236. A team of Lions led by Ed Wied outscored a team of Lions led by Parks Christensen and the Lions Club will host the team for a supper at 6:30 Wednesday night of this week. He extended thanks to the donors and to all who participated in sale of tickets for this event.

The Nada P.T.C. held their monthly meeting on Oct. 22 at 3:30 p.m. in the school library. The meeting was called to order with a prayer and followed by the pledge to the flag. The minutes were read from the previous meeting and the treasurer's report was given. Committee reports were given.

Final plans for the Fall Festival were discussed. It will be held on Sun., Nov. 9th.

The Civics Club will have a booth at the Garwood Lions Club Fair. Mothers were asked to supervise this booth.

It was decided to have a turkey shoot again this year. It will be held about three weeks before Thanksgiving.

It was reported that on Oct. 18 the girls volleyball team won a 3rd place trophy in the St. Philip volleyball tournament. Greta Popp was chosen most valuable player.

The team also defeated Schulenburg on Oct. 21. The meeting was adjourned and closed with a prayer. Reported.
