JETS And NHS Hear CPL Rep.

[By Jenny Lee Griffith]

On Monday, March 2 members of the National Honor Society and the Jets Club were presented an informative program by Donald Ball, Mr. Ball is the Central Power and Light Company's representative of the South Texas Nuclear Project Visitor's Center in Bay City.

The program consisted of a slide show which told of our nation's current energy sources and alternative sources for the future. Also, Mr. Ball explained how the South Texas Nuclear Project will operate when it is completed. He told the group of all the safety precautions that are being taken at the project and of the plant's safety and efficiency.

Mr. Ball ended with a question and answer session and handed out pamphlets on nuclear energy to the club members.

FHA/HERO Students Make Quilt

[By Alicia Gonzalez]

A quilting party was held recently in the homemaking department at Rice High School. Students in some of the homemaking classes have been working on a quilt since early fall and they finally got it all together and were ready

Natural Gas Ranges. The Original Family Recipe.

Natural gas ranges are the key ingredient for responsive, even-temperature cooking. And they use less energy. In fact 2 1/2 times less than the electric kind. So keep a lid on your energy costs. Cook with the original family recipe—natural gas.

Barbara Ross Is February FTA'er

The Rice FTA voted for the month who contributed the most during the month. Barbara Ross, a junior at Rice High School, was chosen Future Teacher for the Month of February. Barbara contributed by making 2 valentines for the teachers, handed out teacher ballot surveys, colored 10 campaign posters for Curo FTA, made poster for valentine project, and worked one hour after school on the scrapbook.

Other FTA'ers that contributed to the FTA for the month of February but were not chosen were: Jasie Olyson, Jenny Griffith, Barbara Prioboda, Melissa Ross, Leslie Harrison, Mary Lou

The Egyptian sphinx, with the body of a lion and the head of a man (sometimes the rarer), symbolized royal majesty. When the Greeks used the symbol, they gave it the body of a lioness and the head of a woman.

Business Club Meets Tues., Mar. 3

[By Judy Benge]

On Tuesday, March 3 the Rice High School Business Club held its second meeting for the school year. President Mike Rios called the meeting to order and called Chris Gold introduced the special guest speaker, Mrs. Jo Ann Mahalite, who was the presented a corsage by Leslie Harrison on behalf of the club.

Mrs. Mahalite presented a very informative program on her experiences in business since purchasing Jo Ann's department store in Eagle Lake. She gave an insight into what is involved in assuming ownership and operation of a business.

After the program, the annual Business Club banquet was discussed. Members were urged to bring guests to the banquet to join in the culmination of this year's activities. Committee members were encouraged to participate on their commitments in order to make it work.

Before the meeting was adjourned, Mrs. Mahalite thanked the club for having her as their speaker. All the members want to express their gratitude to Mrs. Mahalite for taking time to present her program. It was enjoyed by one and all.

The meeting was adjourned by Mike Rios.

Meet The Raider Tennis Players

[By Pam Kallina]

This week, the Raider Review would like to introduce two active young men who play the position of doubles on the Raider varsity tennis team. They are Mark Salazar and Kevin Pellerin.

The first to be interviewed was Mark Salazar, a junior at R.H.S. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Salazar of Eagle Lake. Mark has played tennis for five years and has lettered two years since he's been at Rice. Participation in sports is what Mark believes in. Besides playing tennis, he plays football and baseball.

Kevin Pellerin, a junior, is the son of Mrs. Vera Pellerin of Weimar. He has played the sport of tennis for five years and has lettered on varsity for two years. Kevin is a very active student in extra-curricular activities. He is a member of the Raider band and has also been a photographer for the Raider Annual Staff for two years.

Mark and Kevin are both looking forward to a good season and they both hope they will do well in playing their opponents. Support the Raider tennis team.

Meet The RHS Raider Ball Players

[By Michaelanne Heiner]

This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two baseball players. They are Daniel Garza and Dwayne Page.

Daniel is a senior this year and has played baseball for three years, this being his first year to play for Rice. Daniel's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Garza of Eagle Lake. When asked what he thought of the team Daniel replied, "I think we have a good chance this year, and we also have some good coaches."

Dwayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Washburn. He is a sophomore this year and has played two years for Rice, lettering the previous year. Dwayne thinks the team is pretty good this year because there are a lot more boys out for baseball.
