Rice School Dist.'s Art Named Reserve Champ.
Houston Livestock Show's Art Committee held its 1981 presentation of awards Sunday, March 8 in the Herdman's Room of the Astorhall. Fifty-two school districts entered over 147,000 western art projects in this annual competition. After scoring high with their local exhibit January 24, the Rice district was placed in the finals for the Grand Champion award. The March 8th presentation named College Station Independent School District as the Grand Champion and Rice Consolidated as first runner-up.

At the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo's School Art Exhibit in the Astorhall, each of the school districts were represented by five pieces of art work. Rice Consolidated was represented by Chris Gold's pencil drawing, Keith Rabel's acrylic painting, Neomi Medina's water color, Michael Sibley's ink picture, and front Sheridan Cash Coble's pencil drawing. All Rice entries were recognized as being outstanding. Chris Gold, Keith Rabel and Neomi Medina of Rice High School were each presented with a $50 gift certificate.
