EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

Good Health Week Apr. 27 - May 2

The promotion of health and healthful lifestyles both at home and at the workplace is an alternative to ever-increasing insurance premiums and medical care costs.

In an effort to promote healthier lifestyles and increase awareness of preventive health care, the Houston-Galveston Area Council Health Systems Agency is sponsoring its second annual Good Health Week from April 27 - May 2. The Health Systems Agency is the Federally funded health planning organization for 13 Gulf Coast area counties.

Good Health Week activities, organized in conjunction with area business, industry, and health promotion organizations, will include health fairs to be conducted at selected industrial sites in the Houston area. At the fairs, employers and employees will be able to learn more about nutrition/weight control, smoking cessation, alcohol/drug abuse treatment, physical fitness and exercise, and stress management. Employees will also be able to be screened at no charge for health problems such as high blood pressure, glaucoma, and diabetes. There will also be a "Good Health is Good Business" conference which will bring together experts in health promotion and business to present practical information on how to control health care costs.

Letters To The Editor

Thanks To Happy Hoofers

Happy Hoofers, Eagle Lake, Texas

In behalf of the little patients in the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in Houston and the Shrine Burns Institute in Galveston, their grateful parents, and all the Shriners in Arabia, Temple, we are sending you this expression of thanks for the generous contribution you have made through the Arabia Shrine Hospital Benefit.

You will be pleased to know that in 1980, 93.48% of every dollar we collected was used in actual patient care. We promise to be just as careful to see that your contribution is wisely spent to enable crippled children to walk and burned children to live.

For the Children: Arabia Shrine Hospital Benefit, Maurice Eisberry, Chairman
