Eagle Lake Hospital Attacks Rising Costs

Eagle Lake Community Hospital of Eagle Lake has joined other hospitals throughout Texas and the nation in attacking the rising costs of health care.

As a result of its commitment to a policy of cost effectiveness and restraint, the hospital has been awarded a 1981 Certificate of Participation by the Texas Voluntary Effort (TVE).

John A. Chisholm, Jr., Administrator, Eagle Lake Community Hospital, accepted the certificate on behalf of the hospital's governing board, medical staff and employees and stated that "Hospital costs have been increasing due to a number of factors. Most are beyond our control. Nevertheless, we will continue to aggressively contain the increase in our expenses while at the same time preserving the high standards of service we currently provide to our community."

The TVE is a program of the Texas Hospital Association, the Texas Medical Association and the Texas Federation of Hospitals. Together they have trimmed the rise in health care costs to a level below that of the overall economy thereby saving the citizens of the State several hundred million dollars. Participants include hospitals, physicians and nurses, and over 20 health, business, insurance and state government groups who have organized to effectively deal with the problem of rising health care costs.

Mr. Adams was born June 14, 1917 in Eagle Lake. His parents were Frank R. and Mollie Wilkins Adams. He had resided in Wichita Falls since 1950 and was employed by International Boring Systems Co.

Survivors include one daughter, Linda Innes of Harlingen; two sons, Jeff and Eric Adams of Wichita Falls; three sisters, Lena Podras, Frankie Tipton and Jewel Slatten, all of Houston; one brother, Robert L. Adams of Wichita Falls; and one grandchild.

Mill-Bauer Funeral Home of Eagle Lake handled local arrangements.

Friends in the community extend sympathy to the family in the loss of this loved one.

From bourbon cowboys and honky-tonk angels to that person in the most high-risk occupation of all to become a drunk - your family doctor - the Texas Commission on Alcoholism's 24th Annual Institute of Alcohol Studies July 26-30 in Austin is covering wide-ranging topics.

Keynotes were Dr. Jim Schaefer, an anthropologist who has studied the effects of alcohol on society and music on drinking patterns, and Dr. Doug Talbot, who directs Georgia's program for impaired health professionals.

Schaefer spoke at an awards ceremony at 5 p.m. July 26 in the LBJ Auditorium.

Talbot will speak on the disease model of alcoholism at 9 a.m. July 30 in the Joe C. Thompson Auditorium.
