Raider Review

The RAIDER REVIEW is published by the Journalism department of Rice High School, and the opinions reflected are of the students and not the administration, or the Eagle Lake Headlight, unless so stated.

Freshmen Tested!

(By Renee Hunt)
On Tuesday and Wednesday morning, Oct. 6 and 7 the Rice High School counselors, William Carpenter and Guy Beam, administered the Iowa Test of Educational Development to the members of the freshman class.

For the eleventh consecutive year, the freshmen have been tested to measure each student's academic progress up to the present. As soon as the results are computed, the counselors will meet individually with the students to explore their strengths and weaknesses and map a four-year educational plan.

Meet The ICT Participants

(By Troy Hagendorf)
This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two more members of the ICT program. They are Butch Jones and Ned Hemp. Butch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, and Ned is a Junior this year. He is presently working at the City of Eagle Lake. His boss is Robert Klockman. When Butch was asked what he thought of ICT he replied, "I really enjoy ICT."

Meet The Raider Football Team

(By Michaelanne Hefner)
This week the Raider Review would like to introduce two more members of the Raider football team. They are seniors James Garner and Ronald Dawson. James wears the number 65 for the Raiders. He plays both offense and defense as a guard. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Trula Garner of Altair. When asked what he thought of the team he replied, "I think we have a super team."

Homecoming Week Was Action-Packed

(By Paula Rehwer)
Homecoming week was a very exciting week at Rice High School. It was an action-packed week filled with many activities. The Student Council sponsored several of these activities. A chainlink sale was held in which classes competed to buy the most links. The sophomores class won this contest. A spirit cake was made by the senior girls in student council. The cake was enjoyed by the student body during lunch. A car decoration contest was also held. The winners were: Renee Hunt, first place; Pat Gold, second place; and Alicia Gonzales won third place. Several Rice clubs also participated in a victory float contest. First place in this contest went to the Cosmetology Club; second place went to OEA; and third place went to the FFA.

Cable TV To Offer Showtime Samplings Oct. 24 and 25

Showtime, America's only 24-hour-a-day total entertainment pay television service, will offer basic cable subscribers a sample of its wide assortment of programming during a free weekend preview on October 24 and 25. Cable viewers will have the opportunity to watch 46 hours of non-stop entertainment, including blockbuster movies, first-rate original series, Broadway and live concert performances, all uncut and commercial free. The broad range of comedy, drama and musical features on the Showtime lineup offers programming for all members of the family.

Basic cable subscribers can view some of the many current hit films available on the Showtime schedule including "Airplane!" the madcap spoof of an in-flight disaster starring Lloyd Bridges, Peter Graves and Robert Hays; "Coal Miner's Daughter," featuring Sissy Spacek's moving performance as the life of Loretta Lee, consisting of "Seems Like Old Times," co-starring Chevy Chase and Charles Grodin, and "Private Benjamin," a hilarious display of military madness.

Schneider, Kutzer Are Elected FFA Sweethearts

(By David Shimek, Chapter Reporter)
On September 22, 1981, a senior girl for the honor of Chapter Sweetheart. The nominees for this honor were Carmen Schneider, Kathy Lahee, Renee Hunt, and Gloria Amos. Carmen Schneider was elected the 1981-82 Chapter Sweetheart, and she will represent the Rice FFA Chapter at the District IV Sweetheart Banquet to be held some time in January.

Chemistry Class Tours Power Plant

(By Leslie Harrison)
Last Tuesday, the Rice High School Chemistry Class, taught by Richard Barber, took a field trip to the Sam Seymour, Jr. Generating Plant which is part of the Fayette Power Project. Mary Henderson, public relations director, took them on a tour. They were shown two boilers in operation, the water and coal labs which are constantly testing, the control room, computer room, and the generating room. The class also had a chance to look at the ash ponds and take a drive through the coal belt.
