

Garwood Lions Fair Is Another Great Success

Balas "Cinderella" Entry Is Best In Opening Parade

The 34th Garwood Lions Club's Community Fair and Carnival, held last Saturday at the Garwood school grounds, was another very outstanding success. The Garwood Lions and various organizations which cooperated in sponsoring booths, rides, concessions, etc., received a nice profit for use of many worthy community projects.

John Mader, president of the "Garwood" Lions Club, expressed sincere thanks to all who attended and helped make the event a big success; and also to the members of the Garwood Lions Club for their hard work in staging the event.

Parade Opens Event

The Fair and Carnival opened with a pretty parade beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday, featuring a number of outstanding entries. The entry of the Steve Balas family of Eagle Lake, entitled "Cinderella," won the first place ribbon for entries in the parade. The entry featured a large dragon, snorting steam, driven by Brian Balas, pulling the pretty float with Cinderella characters and Renee Balas and Rachelle Kallina. Appropriate music added to the enjoyment of the large crowd assembled to witness the parade.

Also adding beauty to the parade were other ribbon winners, the pretty red and white Colorado County Fair entry featuring Missy Huvor, the 1981 Fair's best membership salesman and candidate for Fair Queen and little Miss Tiffany Crane, named the Little Miss Colorado County Fair for 1981.

The Weimar Chamber of Commerce float, featuring Deborah Hayward, the 1981 Miss Colorado County Fair, and the Colorado County Federal Savings and Loan pretty float featuring Miss Emily Anderson on the float. Also a popular entry in the parade was "The Book Worms" sponsored by the Veterans Memorial Library, including Ronnie Korenek, Jamie Wesselski, Tom Gold, Jill Janish, Regen Stienke and Eric Korenek, and the entry of the Harry Lobppes family, boasting Harry's Duck and Goose Pickers in a hunting scene. Members of the family in the hunting scene were: Mr. Lobppes and his dog, Sam; and grandchildren: Karyn, Kary and Kyle Crane and Shea Stika.

The judges selected the following winners in the parade:

Floats: first to the Steve Balas entry; second to Harry's Pickers; third to Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce; and fourth to the County Fair Assn.

Vehicle Entries: first to the Garwood Sorority entry; second to the Dan Supak's antique car; and third to the Garwood Fire Dept.'s antique pumper and spotted dog.

Marching Units: first to Lydia Engstrom School of Dance; second to Marilyn Thomas Super Strutters; and third to Eagle Lake Cub Scouts.

Children's Division: first to Patrick Bubala's decorated bicycle; and tied for second were Shara Popp's three-wheeler and a go-cart by Lynn Staff.

Much Talent Displayed At Garwood Fair

The talent show is usually a highlight of the Garwood Lions Fair and Carnival and this year's event brought forth a lot of talent from youngsters of all ages. The event began at 2:30 p.m. in the Garwood school gym with Robert Hunt serving as master of ceremonies for the event.

The show was held "just for the fun of it" and no prizes were awarded nor was there any competition, explained Hunt.

Many of the performers were from the Lydia Engstrom School of Dance and thanks were extended to Mrs. Engstrom for her assistance in staging the talent show.

Melissa Engstrom and Audrey Williams opened the show with their rendition of the Robert E. Lee. Jonna Webb was featured as Charlie Tuna in Rattle Dazzle, performing with "webbed feet."

Leslie Schilling, Cynthia Engstrom, Patty Ann Stephens, Mary Dell Wolfe and Appesa Williams danced to Blue Suede Shoes; Kristine Carpenter danced to Orange Blossom Special; Melissa Hunt entertained with a vocal selection; after which three Wharton County Junior College Starlets received loud applause for their dance routines. They included Carolyn Pavlu, Loretta Matys and Annie Castillo.

Neyssa Popp, Misty Crane, Jennifer Wied, Carl Crane, Stacey Leopold, Julia Wisher, Sunny Chisholm, Amy Leopold, Alexandra Schilling, Melanie Labay, Elizabeth Stiles and Lanette Powers danced to Elvira; Kimberly Korenek, Kristi Stienke, Andrea Engstrom, Rachelle Kallina, Ashley Crane, Dana Leopold and Tiffany Crane, to Dancing Queen.

Following were: Rachelle Hunt and Michele Genf dancing to Another One Bites the Dust; Cynthia Engstrom to Greatest American Hero; Jennifer Labay and Melissa Engstrom to Good Old Boys; Tara Stephens to Heartache Tonight.

Mary Dell Wolfe and Cynthia Engstrom sang "Queen of Hearts" accompanied by Lois Wolfe; Brenda Jackson sang a song; Betty Edgerly gave a piano solo; Appesa Williams, Vicki Drik, Melanie Wiese, Natalie Cordova danced to Adams Family; Kelly Ashley to Cow Pony; Michele Genf to Another Cha Cha Cha; and Garwood twirlers Kelli Lanier and Melissa Engstrom performed to One Step at a Time.

Linda Korenek Is 1981 Garwood Fairest Of Fair

The 1981 Fairest of the Fair competition brought to a close the 34th annual Garwood Lions Club Fair and Carnival last Saturday evening, beginning at 6:00 p.m., when a large crowd was on hand to watch fifteen pretty young ladies from the area compete for the title. Theme of the 1981 event was "A Little Bit Texan."

Decorations for the event were in keeping with the theme with large red and white calico bows tied onto the backdrops and red and white flowers filling boots placed on the stage and on the red-carpeted runway. A large saddle added the finishing touches to the western theme.

William (Bill) Carpenter and David White, shared master of ceremony duties for the event.

When the judging was over Miss Linda Korenek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Korenek of Garwood and a freshman student at Rice High School, was named the 1981 Fairest of the Fair. She was sponsored by the American Rice Growers Assn. of Garwood.

Four other finalists chosen by the judges included: Miss Becky Benge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major Benge of Eagle Lake, an entry of the Eagle Lake Chamber of Commerce; Miss Karl Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Barton of Columbus, sponsored by the Columbus C. of C.; Miss Laurie Bubala, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bubala of Garwood, sponsored by Alpha Sigma Omega Sorority; the first runner-up to the Fairest of the Fair; and Miss Kristine Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter of Garwood, sponsored by Lydia Engstrom School of Dance, named the second runner-up.

The young ladies were judged on beauty, poise, composure and personality. Judges for the event were: Ray and Noretha Smith and Jim and Sandra Coe, Mr. Smith and Mr. Coe are on the staff of Wharton County Junior College.

At 2:30 p.m. a large gathering was on hand in the Garwood school gym for an outstanding talent show. There was a wide variety of entertainment ranging from dancing to singing (see another article for participating with Robert Hunt serving as master of ceremonies for this entertainment feature).

The concluding portion of the Fair, the Fairest of the Fair competition, and also the results of the domestic show were discussed in separate articles in this issue.

"Your support will enable the Garwood Lions to carry on many worthy projects in the Garwood and Nada communities," reminded President Mader.
